150th Annual Convention

Preliminary Meetings

In accordance with the Recommendations of the Committee on the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the Diocese a Lay Pilgrimage to Christ Church was held on April 30, 1934, at 4 P. M., to commemorate the Notable Meetings held in Philadelphia in 1784 resulting in the Establishment of the Church and the Foundation of the Diocese. Addresses were delivered by the Honorable Roland S. Morris, Chancellor of the Diocese, by the Honorable George W. Pepper, by Thomas S. Gates, President of the University of Pennsylvania, and by the Right Reverend James DeWolf Perry, Presiding Bishop of the Church.

At 6.15 P. M. the Bishop of the Diocese entertained the Deputies to the Convention at a Dinner, which was followed by a Mass Meeting at 8.15 P. M., in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, when the Bishop read The Annual Address to the Convention, an Historical Sermon was preached by the Reverend Louis C. Washburn, S.T.D., Rector of Christ Church, and an Address was made by the Presiding Bishop. The Offering for the Missionary Work amounted to $163.25.

Journal of Proceedings

The Opening Service of the One Hundred and Fiftieth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held by appointment at 9.30

A. M. in Saint James's Church, Philadelphia, in commemoration of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary of that Parish.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, D.D., Co-Rector, assisted by the Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D., and the Rev. E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Bishop of the Diocese being the Preacher. The Offering for Missionary Work amounted to $60.55.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the last Convention Year, who have a special claim to our prayers, as follows:

Of Bishops of the Church:

Hugh Latimer Burleson — Henry Bond Restarick
Edward Campion Acheson — James Dow Morrison

Of Clergy of this Diocese:

Allen Rachelle VanMeter — William Herbert Burk
Samuel Norris Craven — Seaver Milton Holden
Philip Sidney Irwin — Henry Alexander Field Hoyt

Of Clergy not Canonically Resident:

George Albert Hanna

Of Deaconesses of this Diocese:

Frances Albin-Jones — Amelia Sanford

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

Alexander G. Mercer — Sheldon Potter
William Francis Hughes Read — Horace Wells Sellers
James Patton Hunter — Edward Horne Bonsall
William Linton Landreth — Edwin I. Atlee
Henry Afflerbach — Henry Carlisle Stewart
Stanley Griswold Flagg — Elvin H. Mackey

Of Former Deputies to the Convention:

Robert P. DeSilver — William Wood Cleaver
John Miller Canfield — Nathan Hatfield Davis

Of Other Laymen and Benefactors:

Alexander Van Rensselear — Henry Winfield Watson

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop in the Church of the Holy Trinity at 11.10 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. J. M. Niblo nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles H. Long

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight-Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings in this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 43 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 231 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the whole activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1933:

(1) Report of the Committee on the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese.
(2) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(3) Report of the Committee on the Problem of Mid-City Churches.
(4) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.
(5) Report of the Committee on Revising the Canons relating to Missions.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: S. Luke, Chadds Ford; S. John, New London; S. Martin, Marcus Hook; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia; Gloria Dei, Philadelphia.

That of the 42 Missions and Chapels entitled to Lay Representatives only 16 have sent in Certificates.

The Secretary offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. WHEREAS: The Church of S. Luke, Chadds Ford, has been closed for four years and the four Communicants enrolled are worshipping at S. John's Church, Concord;

AND WHEREAS: The Executive Council on November 10, 1933, passed a Resolution that the Parish be stricken from the List of Parishes and Missions;

RESOLVED: That after the property is transferred to The Church Foundation the necessary steps be taken to dissolve the Corporation, and that said Parish be stricken from the List.

2. WHEREAS: When the Canonical Assessments for 1933 were apportioned, S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia, and S. Barnabas, Kensington, were Parishes of the Diocese;

AND WHEREAS: These Parishes assumed the status of Missions in May, 1933;

RESOLVED: At the request of the Treasurer of the Diocese that their Assessments be cancelled, viz., $23.16 and $31.31 for the Convention Fund, and $14.07 and $19.03 for the Sustentation Fund, respectively, and that the books be so adjusted.

The Secretary reports further:

That on October 13, 1933, the Executive Council authorized the placing of S. Andrew, West Vincent, on the List of Parishes and Missions as a Chapel of S. Mary, Warwick, and requested the Church Foundation to pay to the Treasurer of the Diocese the income from its Endowment Funds as part of the salary of the Priest-in-charge.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1933: Christ, Pottstown; S. Mary, Hamilton Village; S. John, Northern Liberties. Also, of the 42 Missions and Chapels entitled to seats: S. Peter, Weldon.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1933: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James, Hestonville; Trinity, Ambler; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Barnabas, Kensington; Resurrection, Mayfair; S. James, Downingtown; Christ, Ridley Park; Good Shepherd, Kensington; Incarnation, Drexel Hill; S. Bartholomew, Philadelphia; S. David, Manayunk; S. John Baptist, Germantown; S. John the Divine, Philadelphia; S. Jude and The Nativity; S. Paul Memorial, Philadelphia; Saint Sauveur; S. Stephen, Wissahickon. Several Parishes have asked leniency in this matter and promised to try to pay during 1934.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. Frank Goostray — The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. E. S. Thomas

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 265 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 141 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 76 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 24th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1:45 P. M.

The Committee would report further that the following who were nominated on the Preliminary Ballot have not been included on the Official Ballot:

Executive Council: The Rev. J. M. Niblo, who was ineligible, the Rev. G. E. Pember, Mr. J. P. B. Sinkler and Mr. Isaac Starr, who withdrew their names.

Canons of The Cathedral: Mr. Isaac Starr, who withdrew his name.

Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions: Mr. N. H. Davis, who died March 16.

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Elections, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See pp. 39, 40, 44, 45.)

Additional Nominations being asked for the following were nominated as Deputies to the General Convention: the Rev. A. E. Clattenburg, the Rev. C. E. Snowden, the Rev. H. R. Weir, Mr. J. L. Patton, Mr. C. L. Harper, Mr. R. S. Morris and the Rev. C. E. Eder, who withdrew his name. Also on Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions: Mr. G. W. Pepper, Jr.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed where only a sufficient number had been nominated, and the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.; Franklin Joiner, D.D.; J. O. McIlhenny, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D. Messrs. W. P. Barba, Spencer Ervin, W. W. Frazier, Jr., S. F. Houston, P. S. Williams.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Messrs. E. O. Coates, W. J. Dickson, Spencer Ervin, C. F. Hoffman, B. H. Ludlow, C. R. Woodruff.

COMMISSION OF CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS: Mr. G. W. Pepper, Jr.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Messrs. J. A. Harris, Jr., Thomas Newhall, C. S. W. Packard, Charlton Yarnall.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION: For 3 years—The Revs. Franklin Joiner, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.; Messrs. E. B. McCarthy, R. A. Morgan, H. R. Robins.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

CHURCH ADVOCATE: Mr. J. L. Evans.

BOARD OF TRIERS: The Revs. A. J. Arkin, G. W. Barnes, George Copeland; A. A. Ewing, S.T.D.; R. B. Green, J. E. Hill, Waldemar Jansen, J. R. Logan, D.D.; C. S. Lyons, George Mair; Crosswell McBee, D.D.; R. J. McFetridge, G. R. Miller, W. N. Parker, W. C. Pugh, Edward Ritchie, J. W. B. Stewart, E. S. Thomas, H. A. Walton, J. O. Warfield, D. D.

BOARD OF CONTROL DIOCESAN LIBRARY: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; Crosswell McBee, D.D.; W. C. Pugh; Messrs. R. D. Brown, W. I. Rutter, Jr., C. R. Woodruff.

The Church of S. John, Northern Liberties, presented a Parochial Report, which the Bishop refused to accept.

The following Resolutions were presented and, on motion, referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business:

By the Rev. C. E. Grammer in re Rule 5 Standing Orders (page 56).

By the Rev. L. C. Lewis in re Separate Treasurers for Parish and Missionary Offerings (page 59).

By Mr. Spencer Ervin in re Safeguarding Investments (page 59).

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS reported no Claims had been presented.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that no Claims had been presented.

On motion, the Church of S. Mary, Hamilton Village, having presented a Parochial Report, was restored to Representation in the Convention.

THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS presented the Report.

The Committee has considered the application of the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Innocents, Tacony, Philadelphia, to amend their By-laws to permit the election of the Vestry in the following manner:

"One third only of the whole number of Vestrymen shall be elected each year at the annual election to serve for three years each, or until their successors shall be elected. At the first annual election after the adoption of this By-law four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve one year, four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve two years, and four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve three years, and thereafter four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve annually."

The amended By-law has been approved by the Bishop, and the Standing Committee and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and offers the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the amended By-law of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Tacony, Philadelphia, providing for the election of one-third of the whole number of Vestrymen annually, be approved by the Convention of the Diocese.

WILLIAM SHARP, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. W. P. Barba read the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

and on motion consideration of the Resolution was postponed until the completion of the Report of the Committee on Canons (page 49).

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge presented the thanks of S. James's Church for allowing the Opening Service of the Convention to be held there on this, their 125th Anniversary.

There being no further Nominations for those Offices not yet balloted for, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

and offered for adoption Amendment I, A, proposed by the Executive Council and submitted by the Committee without recommendation.

The Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the REPORT and offered for approval Amendment B, Canon VII, Sec. VI, 3, proposed by the Executive Council and submitted by the Committee without recommendation (Appendix P, page 364):

I, B. Repeal Sub-section 3, and substitute therefor the following:

3. Expenditures out of this fund for the purpose of augmenting salaries of Rectors and for covering the Pension Premiums on such payments shall be directed by the Executive Council, and expenditures to prevent the Pension Premium arrearages above described shall be directed by the Commission on Pensions of this Diocese.

4. The amount to be apportioned among the Parishes each year for the maintenance of the Sustentation Fund shall be determined as follows: Two months prior to each Annual Convention the Commission on Pensions shall send to the Executive Council its estimate of the amount that will be needed during the next calendar year for the purpose of preventing the Pension Premium arrearages described above, and the Council in like manner shall estimate the amount that will be needed during the same period to augment the salaries of Rectors as above provided, and to cover the Pension Premiums on such payments, and the Council shall recommend to the Convention as the amount to be apportioned for the Sustentation Fund the sum of the estimates of the Commission and of the Council for their several responsibilities, and such total, or a greater or less amount, whichever may be approved by the Convention, shall be apportioned among the Parishes in the same manner as is prescribed for the Convention Fund.

On motion the Church of S. John the Divine was restored to representation in the Convention, having paid the Assessments.

The Polls were declared open from 1.45 to 2.30 P. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 1.10 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.35 P. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Bishop of the Diocese presented by Title a copy of the same having been read at the Diocesan Mass Meeting on Monday.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS AND OFFICIAL DIARY
(Appendix A, pages 65, 81)

S. Martin, Marcus Hook, and Gloria Dei, Philadelphia, having presented Certificates for Lay Deputies were admitted to representation in this Convention.

Discussion of the Amendment to Canon VII, VI, 3, being resumed, the Resolution for Approval was lost on a Vote by Orders—Clergy, Ayes 34, Noes 116; Parishes, Ayes 19, Noes 81.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. C. E. Snowden presented the

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Rev. J. M. Collins made an address on the Missions in the Diocese.

The Order of the Day having arrived Captain Mountford addressed the Convention concerning the work of The Church Army.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Rev. L. C. Washburn presented the calling special attention to the work of the Home for Consumptives as follows:

REPORT OF THE CITY MISSION

The income of the Home has fallen off about $43,660 as compared with the year 1932; Endowment, $46,400 to $32,000 estimated; Part Payment from Patients, $37,600 to $21,700 estimated; Grant from Welfare Federation, $42,000 to $28,640 estimated.

Every conceivable economy in practice, compatible with the right to undertake this important work in combatting tuberculosis in its various forms, has been made, but it seems to develop the fact that the Institution cannot be maintained and kept open on the present income, except very partially—perhaps half or less—or else that it may be completely closed temporarily.

The Board of Council therefore feels it incumbent and necessary widely to acquaint the Convention and the Diocese of the serious financial dilemma of this Institution of which in the past we have been so justly proud, and of the more than evident danger that it will be necessary to close it partially, or totally, for a long period of months, unless some relief is obtained from sources not yet in evidence.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

and offered the Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $15,000 for the purposes of The Sustentation Fund for the year 1935.

The following Standing Resolutions, proposed by the Commission, were adopted:

RESOLVED, That when more than $500 annually is required from the Sustentation Fund to enable a Parish to pay its Rector the minimum salary, the Commission shall not make any appropriation until its Rector and Vestry shall have filed with the Bishop their agreement that the Bishop may call upon the Rector to devote a portion of his time to missionary work outside of the Parish, under the direction of the Bishop.

RESOLVED, That if a Parish does not contribute at least $1300 annually towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may, and, if it does not contribute at least $1200 the Commission shall withdraw or decline to make any appropriation to augment the Rector's salary, and shall recommend to the Bishop, the Rector and Vestry that the Parish make application to come under the Missionary Administration, as provided for in Canon VIII, Section V.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the

and offered for adoption Amendment A, under III, to Canon VI, Section I, 1, proposed by the Executive Council and recommended by the Committee.

On motion, the following words were added "The President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese."

The Amendment as amended was adopted.

Amendments B, C, D, E, and F, under III, were each adopted (page 367).

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

After conference with the Executive Council, concerning the Canons relating to Missions as instructed by the Convention of 1933, the Committee on Canons offers Amendments A, B, C, D, E, F, G, Canon VIII, Canon IX, Canon XI, each of which was approved (pp. 367-373).

(Signed) F. M. TAITT, President.

The Rev. D. M. Steele offered the following Resolution, which was adopted on Division, Ayes 97, Noes 42:

RESOLVED, That the Nominees receiving the highest number of votes be the Third and Fourth Clerical Deputies and the Fourth Lay Deputy to the General Convention.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer questioned the legality of this proceedure, since the election must be by Orders.

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge moved to re-consider the Resolution of Dr. Steele, and on reconsideration Dr. Steele's Resolution was lost.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer withdrew his name as a Nominee for Deputy to General Convention.

The Polls were declared open at 6 P. M. for ten minutes.

The Convention took a Recess until 7.45 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 7.45 P. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne continued the

and moved to amend Canon VIII, Sec. V, 4, by adding after the word "demonstrated" in line 1 the words "to the satisfaction of the Bishop."

The Amendment was approved and the whole Canon as approved was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the REPORT

and offered for adoption the Amendment to Canon IV, Sec. II, proposed by Mr. L. B. Runk, recommended by the Committee (page 374).

The Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne offered the Resolution under V, as follows, both of which were adopted (page 374).

The Rev. F. C. Steinmetz offered a Resolution to include the Canons as revised in the printed JOURNAL for 1934, which was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne offered Resolutions 1, 3, and 4 at the end of the Report as printed (Appendix P, page 375), each of which was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. That the Canons be printed under the supervision of the Committee on Canons, and that the Committee be authorized to do such renumbering and such regrouping as may be proper, and to make such corrections as may be necessary to ensure the Canons as printed representing the will of the Convention.
2. That the Committee be authorized to prepare for printing separately, and for circulation among the Missions, a short summary of the Canonical provisions having to do with the responsibilities and duties of Missionaries and Mission officers.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

(Appendix D, page 258)

Mr. Spencer Ervin offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE SALE OF THE EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE

WHEREAS, The Convention of 1917 by resolution authorized the Trustees of the Diocese, acting in conjunction with the Standing Committee, to sell the Episcopal Residence on South Twenty-second Street; RESOLVED, That this Convention authorizes the Church Foundation, the legal successor to the Trustees of the Diocese, acting upon the advice of the Standing Committee, to sell the said residence and the lot adjoining it, and, also to purchase another building suitable for an Episcopal Residence, if, in the opinion of both bodies such sale and/or such purchase would be for the best interests of the Diocese. PROVIDED, That in case of the sale of the said residence the proceeds shall be used or set aside for the purposes set forth in the deed of trust.

Mr. L. B. Runk offered the following Amendment, which was adopted:

After the words "and also to purchase" add the words "or erect," and after the words "or such purchase" add the words "and erection."

THE REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL WAS PRESENTED by Title
(Appendix F, page 283)

The Rev. S. R. West, of the Department of Social Service and Institutions, offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The widespread influence for evil of immoral, suggestive and unwholesome motion pictures is one of the most serious of our current problems, particularly in the field of the moral training of the young; and WHEREAS, The methods used by the producers of the films force upon the exhibitors pictures that they would often reject, if their liberty of choice had not been taken away from them by the contracts forced upon them by producers; THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in this, its annual session in the year of our Lord 1934, commissions its Department of Social Service to prepare a Memorial to the General Convention at its meeting in Atlantic City in October, to be presented by the Diocesan deputies in the name of this Convention, calling the attention of the General Convention to these evils and abuses and asking it to throw the full weight of our Church's influence on the side of those who are trying to arouse our parents, teachers and spiritual pastors to the peril in which the children of the nation stand from the debasing influence of the motion picture industry as at present conducted and to give the support of its approval to those who are seeking to liberate the exhibitors of films from the tyrannical domination of the producers of the films and in this way to open a door through which improvement may enter.

The Rev. J. E. Hill presented the Budget for 1934

and offered the Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1935 on the basis of the Budget for 1934, as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as may be necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn and the expected income for 1935.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer presented the Resolution (see page 40):

INASMUCH as the motion to lay upon the table has become in popular usage a gag motion and thereby the freedom of debate is impaired—

And INASMUCH as the motion to postpone to a time certain defers a pending question to a more convenient session, and yet at the same time permits a brief debate upon the necessity or propriety of the postponement,

Therefore, be it RESOLVED, That 5th of the Standing Rules of Order be repealed and in its place be substituted the following:

RULE 5

"The motion to lay upon the table is not permissible, inasmuch as the same purpose may be accomplished by the motion to postpone to a time certain."

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

The Polls were declared open at 8.45 P. M. for five minutes.

The Rev. L. C. Lewis presented the Resolution (see page 40), which was adopted:

WHEREAS, Both the National Council and the Executive Council of the Diocese are seriously hampered in conducting their work because of the irregularity and delay in receiving from Wardens and Treasurers the contributions of the people;

RESOLVED, That the Convention urges Rectors and Vestries and Mission authorities to consider the appointment of separate treasurers for Parish and Missionary Offerings, so that the latter may be more promptly remitted to headquarters.

Mr. Spencer Ervin presented the Resolution (see page 40), which was adopted:

WHEREAS, Sound financial practice requires that securities and current funds be safeguarded and investments continuously supervised;

AND WHEREAS, Some non-parochial Institutions, Societies, Committees and other organizations operating in the Diocese of Pennsylvania under the auspices of this Church, at present lack adequate protection for their securities and funds, and supervision of their investments;

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Bishop is hereby requested to appoint a Special Committee to bring about such protection and supervision by the voluntary action of the organizations at present concerned; to confer with the Committee on Canons on the desirability and practicability of regulating the matter by Canon; and to submit to the Convention of 1935 a written report of its actions and recommendations.

The COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report.

Conditions in Church and Nation in 1783

It is with joy that I greet you at the Convention held this year, commemorating the 150th anniversary of a great event in our Church's history. When the Treaty of Peace between Great Britain and this country was signed in Paris in 1783, it secured to us thirteen States and the territory west of the Mississippi. While the war lasted, these States had fought side by side, but when it was over there seemed to be nothing to hold them together. They had no President and their Congress was destitute of power. It was not until 1787 that a Convention was held and after four months of wrangling and stormy debates a Constitution was adopted. There were still the Federalists supporting a Union of States, and anti-Federalists who believed in the sovereign rights of individual States, and jealous of any power given to a central body. In this political condition how fared it with the Church? In 1783 Maryland made "A Declaration of certain fundamental Rights and Liberties of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Maryland." In this she says, "We consider it as the undoubted Right of said Protestant Episcopal Church to complete and preserve herself as an entire Church; and to have the full enjoyment and free exercise of those purely spiritual powers—which being derived only from Christ and His Apostles are maintained independent of every foreign or other jurisdiction." This was maintaining the sovereignty of each State in matters ecclesiastical as well as in matters political.

A semi-private meeting was held in New England in 1783 and Samuel Seabury was selected as Bishop. He was sent to England to do everything in his power to secure Consecration. In case of failure, he was to go to the non-juring Episcopal College of Scotland. The Bishops of England properly refused to give the Episcopate to petty States or sections and the non-juring Bishops were invoked and acquiesced.

Philadelphia was the College of Statesmen. These Statesmen with all their differences of opinion were determined that America should be a Nation. The Rev. William White, whose whole life had been spent with these men, had the same idea in regard to the Church. Churchmen must be gathered into one body and that body legislate for the whole Church.

An entry in the Minutes of the Vestry of Christ Church, Philadelphia, at their meeting on November 13, 1783: "The Rector mentioned to the Vestry that he lately had a conversation with Doctor Magaw on the Subject of appointing a Committee from the Vestries of their respective Churches to confer with the Clergy of said Churches on the Subject of forming a Representative body of the Episcopal Churches in this State, and wished to have the sense of this Vestry thereon. After some consideration the Vestry agreed to appoint a Committee of two Persons for Each Church viz: Mr Clarkson W. Pollard for Xt Ch.

Steps Taken to Form Representative Body of Church in Penna.

Doctor Clarkson and Mr Chaloner for St. Peter's Church." On April 10, 1784, "The Rector, Messrs G. Clarkson, Chaloner and Pollard report that agreeable to the Minit of the 13th Novr and to a similar appointment of the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, there had been held three Meetings of the Clergy and the Committees of the two Vestries."

Dr. William Smith, in Maryland, and the Rev. Abraham Beach, of New Brunswick, New Jersey, united in arranging for a meeting in New Brunswick to resuscitate The Corporation for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of the Clergy. The meeting convened on May 11, 1784. It was attended by three representative clergy each from Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, and four laymen who were at hand on civic business. Dr. White presided. The Philadelphia clergy urged the adoption of the principles which they had previously agreed upon. A committee of correspondence was appointed "for the purposes of forming a continental representation of the Episcopal Church and for the better management of the concerns of said Church." It was also agreed to procure as general a meeting as might be of representatives of the clergy and laity of the different States in the city of New York on the 6th of October following. Before that general meeting a provincial one was held in Philadelphia which had great influence upon it.

Dr. White Corresponds with Churchmen Throughout Country

"Before the autumn meeting in New York Dr. White had corresponded widely with Churchmen in various parts of the country, entering at length and in detail into the plans of reconstruction, stirring the interest and stimulating the action which brought so large a delegation to New York. There were representatives from eight States present. It was regarded as a voluntary rather than an authorized convention; and its acts took the form of recommendation and proposal. Dr. Smith was made Chairman. A report was adopted embodying essentially the principles affirmed by the Philadelphia clergy in May. It advocated one general Episcopal Church for the United States to be constitutionally governed by representatives, clerical and lay, from the Church in each State."

It is this work of Dr. White, then only thirty-seven years old, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania is commemorating at this time.

When we turn our minds to the events of the past year there is much for which to thank God. We have noted no great financial improvement. Quite the contrary. By the help of God, however, we have held every Mission Station and Parish; and, so far as the Diocese is concerned, have not in a single instance reduced our stipends. We have 76 Aided Parishes and Missions beside Institutions, which require a Diocesan outlay of over $10,000 a month. When more prosperous times arrive we hope that some of these may be able to take care of themselves, but at present they need our help.

Diocese Today Showing Spiritual Advancement

Spiritually, I think our Diocese is making an advance. Never in our history have there been such congregations on Good Friday, nor so many Communions on Easter Day. Many Clergy tell me that attendance at public worship is steadily increasing. I hear this also from other Dioceses.

A number of our Missions are giving evidence of renewed life and greatly increased congregations.

No Diocese ever had a more earnest and consecrated set of workers. Our Deans are intelligent, active and resourceful. They are unsparing of themselves, and their labors are bearing abundant fruit. Our Finance Department, under the able and experienced leadership of Mr. Joshua Ash Pearson is accomplishing great results. The Field Department, under the leadership of Mr. Snowden, who served an apprenticeship in the National Council, is most alert and constructive. The Budget Committee, under Dean Hill, strains every nerve and muscle to make $150,000 do the work of $200,000. A tremendous help has been the Diocesan Contributors' Fund under the inspiration of Dean Shreiner. In this way fifty thousand dollars were contributed last year, and we hope to get at least a like amount this year.

Work of Mr. Ervin Bearing Rich Fruitage

For a long time we have felt the need of a man of education and culture and spirituality, and so circumstanced that he could give his services gratuitously to the Diocese. Such a one, we felt, could meet with Vestries and help them solve their difficulties. He could also be so conversant with the needs of the Diocese, and opportunities for investment of wealth in unfailing securities, that he could advise men how to so use their material possessions that they might not be ashamed, when called upon, to give an account of their stewardship. Such a man we have found in Mr. Spencer Ervin. His splendid but unobtrusive work is bearing rich fruitage.

Nor can we forget our great Chancellor, the Honorable Roland S. Morris, who gives so much of his valuable time to solving the great legal problems which beset us. A decision from him is never questioned.

During the past year I Instituted eight Rectors.

Episcopal Hospital and Other Dedications During Year

On May 6, I dedicated the great addition to the Episcopal Hospital. This will enormously increase the capacity as well as add to the efficiency of the work. A splendidly equipped Maternity Department is now made possible. The Hospital never had this Department before. A large number of beautiful private rooms are also provided. If you want to be proud of what your Church is doing for suffering humanity, go and look at and through the Episcopal Hospital.

On June 6, I dedicated a most beautiful window at St. Martin's, Ithan. Theophilus P. Chandler, a renowned architect, desired to give to the Lord his last and finest work. He designed the beautiful Chapel at Ithan, but before its completion he became totally blind. He, therefore, was never permitted to see his gift. Some years after his decease, his wife was desirous of putting in a Chancel window in memory of her husband. After a long search, a design was selected and the window executed. Before its completion, however, she was called away by death and never was permitted to see her gift. Strange this would be, did we believe that death ended all. In the life of the Church expectant, we believe that both have the joy that was denied them on earth.

On June 7, I opened the added building at the House of Rest for the Aged. This is one of our greatest charities. The happiness that prevails among our aged guests makes a visit there a joy. Through the kindness of the Houston estate, a five years' permission was given to use this large additional building. Even with the increased space we cannot accommodate all who seek our help. This Institution should make a great appeal to the generosity of the faithful.

On June 11, I dedicated a Parish House at Trinity Church, Solebury. This is the only public hall of the neighborhood and is largely used. It is beautiful in design and equipment and fills a long-felt want.

On December 25, I consecrated the graveyard at Old St. David's Church, Radnor.

On December 31, I blessed a beautiful window at the Church of the Nativity, Rockledge. This window was in memory of the wife of the Rector and was a gift of love from the whole congregation.

A beautiful entrance porch has been built at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, by Mr. Ralph North and family in memory of Mrs. North.

The Parish House at Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, has been renovated at an expense of $1700 and no debt incurred.

On February 18, I dedicated a Chapel Altar at St. Mark's Church, Frankford.

On August 4, I broke ground for a Parish Building, the first unit of a group of buildings for St. Anne's Church, Willow Grove.

On January 4, I dedicated the building. It is very beautiful; of ample size and nicely equipped. It reflects great credit on the Rev. George Christian Anderson, through whose efforts it was made possible.

On April 21, I dedicated a Chapel and Baptistry in the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli.

On June 3, I laid the foundation stone of St. Mary's Chapel of the Cathedral Church of Christ. Seventeen years ago Mrs. Annie M. Vaughan Watson left the sum of $100,000 for the construction of a Church. Bishop Rhinelander selected the Church of the Ascension, Philadelphia, as the beginning of a Cathedral and purchased adjoining property with the money. Later on, it was felt that that was not a favorable location. Bishop Garland purchased 100 acres in Upper Roxborough and promised the Hon. Henry W. Watson that the Chapel should be built there. Years were passing and no progress made. Unpromising financial conditions existed. Mr. Watson felt that seventeen years was a long delayed promise and showed the present Bishop letters of the promise and its many deferments. He also spoke of his age and health and the earnest desire that he might at least see the beginning of the work. Under these conditions, the Cathedral Chapter planned to begin at once. Congressman Watson was at the laying of the cornerstone, and died a few months afterward. So delighted was he, that he made a Will leaving us $10,000 for an Altar, and his entire estate after a life interest of his wife and her daughter. We have large mortgages on the ground, though, through the kindness of friends who own the ground, the interest is very low. We hope our friends will not only remember the Cathedral in their Wills, but will make gifts now, when the needs are so pressing. The formation of a League to make annual contributions to the Cathedral Fund would be a step in the right direction.

Cathedral and Its Needs

One sad event is the Philadelphia Divinity School which is in such financial difficulty that it closed its term on April 14. It hopes that by eliminating the overhead for six months, and awakening the interest of the Alumni, it may resume its sessions next October. The Divinity School is not a Diocesan Institution, though it was established by that great master builder, Alonzo Potter, Bishop of Pennsylvania. It has done a magnificent work, and a large percentage of the most successful clergy of our country look to it as their Alma Mater. The School has never been sufficiently endowed for its expanded work. When I attended it, there was a private house for the resident students, and a stable for class rooms. In such simple accommodations and with but four Professors and an Instructor in Hebrew, the support was comparatively simple. With buildings of over $1,000,000 value and an enlarged faculty, the expenses enormously increased, and there should have been a corresponding increase of endowment. The situation is aggravated by the fact that 3/5 of the Endowment Fund is not now productive. This is not due to rash investments. Every Philadelphian felt that mortgages and the Pennsylvania Railroad were as sure as death and taxes. We have no railroad investments, but three hundred thousand dollars' worth of mortgages are not yielding a dollar of income. I wish that an annual offering for the support of the School were taken in every Church of the Diocese. I hope, in this present emergency, men and women of wealth will come to the assistance of a School that has such an honorable history.

The Church Training School

The Church Training and Deaconess School is also one of our important but inadequately supported institutions. In this School I taught for twenty-five years and I can attest the devotion and fidelity of those who are there preparing for Church work. For several years I was an examiner at the Divinity School, but the examination papers of my department at the Church Training School were far better than any I examined at the Divinity School.

Last year, through a most earnest and thorough appeal, sufficient funds were secured to carry on through the year. Again we must make an earnest appeal if the work is to be continued. It is most important and should receive the monetary support of all interested in the well-being of our Church.

The Home for Consumptives

The Home for Consumptives has suffered greatly in the past year. Last year its annual income from all sources decreased from $126,000, which barely supported this great institution, to $82,340. It serves a vast number of people most of whom can give nothing, or a very small amount, for their care. I have had most piteous appeals from sufferers unable to pay.

It is one of the finest institutions in the country. I have seen patients carried in, apparently on the verge of death. I have seen the same come out and live for many years, taking up their old positions and supporting their families. Were I tubercular, it is the institution to which I would want to be taken. While its privilege is open to all without regard to religious faith, its support must come mainly from our own Church. We have in the membership of our Church both wealth and liberality, as is attested by the gifts to outside works. I do not want to restrain our people in any work for the benefit of mankind. I would, however, like them to know the importance of what our Church is doing; and of the call that these institutions should have upon their liberality. Most of these freely give their benefits to all, Christians of any religious faith or non-Christians. It is our Church's gift to humanity. To keep the institutions up to the highest efficiency, and that they may serve all who need their care, requires generous giving on the part of our own people. When you realize this, I know you will want to give.

There are several events in the past year that are worthy of notice. The 100th anniversary of the Female Protestant Episcopal Prayer Book Society of Pennsylvania was celebrated on February 10. The Bishop celebrated the Holy Communion in his Chapel at the Church House and the Rev. James Alan Montgomery, a descendant of one of the founders of the Society, made the address.

Notable Events in Diocese During Past Year

On July 23, Calvary Church, Conshohocken, began its 75th anniversary observance. It was a great pleasure to be present and preach on the occasion.

On November 10, the Rev. Charlles H. Long celebrated the 15th anniversary of his Rectorship at Zion Church, Philadelphia. I was present at the dinner on that happy occasion.

On December 3, I preached the Sermon in St. Michael's Church, Trenton, it being the 230th anniversary of the Parish.

On December 10, the Rev. Wallace E. Conkling celebrated the 10th anniversary of his most successful Rectorship at St. Luke's Church, Germantown. I was present, confirmed and preached.

On December 21, St. Peter's Church, Germantown, celebrated its 60th anniversary. The Rector Emeritus, the Rev. Stewart P. Keeling, D.D., preached, and I held an Ordination. On the following Sunday I preached and confirmed.

The Rev. Charles H. Arndt, after five years as Curate and thirty-six years as Rector, resigned the Rectorship of Christ Church, Germantown. He was much beloved and his resignation much regretted.

On Trinity Sunday, June 11, Christ Church and St. Michael's combined, selecting Christ Church as the Parish Church. This was not done because of failure or noticeable diminution of congregation of either Parish. They were, however, so close together that it was felt that more effective work could be done by combining their labors.

I owe the deepest debt of gratitude to the many men and women who give so generously of their time and mental energy to solving the problems of the Diocese. Committee meetings absorb much of their energy. They are many and require deep thought. I must speak of one most active in all our work, though to mention his name is enough. Edward Horne Bonsall walked with God and lived to fulfil His will. He held a most enviable position in business, standing at the very head of his profession. Yet everyone was impressed with the fact that business was always made subordinate to his service for God. His sudden taking off was like that of Enoch—"he was not, for God took him."

Expresses Gratitude for Help in Solving Problems

The Diocesan Altar Guild has made my Chapel all that could be desired. Daily Prayer, Confirmations, Celebrations of the Holy Communion, and even Marriages take place in this sacred spot.

The Woman's Auxiliary continues its wonderful work in all departments of missionary endeavor; and the Girls' Friendly Society is interesting girls and young women in work for one another. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is exercising a wholesome influence among men as is attested by the large number of men at the Corporate Service of the Holy Communion on Washington's Birthday. The Church Club, though not as large as

Woman's Auxiliary Continues Its Wonderful Work

I should like to see, has given us a great stimulus in the papers read at its meetings. Some of these have been published.

Hopes for 20,000 from Diocese at General Convention

Next October the General Convention will be held in Atlantic City. No city in the United States is more accessible; nor can any city offer the varied and extensive hotel accommodations. There is an auditorium that seats over 40,000. It is my earnest desire that it shall be completely filled at the Opening Service. New Jersey, Newark, New York, Long Island, Bethlehem, Harrisburg and Delaware should each send large delegations. My hope for Pennsylvania is that it shall send 20,000 persons. It can do this. Railroad accommodations are being provided. Anyone in the city of Philadelphia with a five-dollar note can cover the expenses of the opening day, including transportation, meals, the night reception at Haddon Hall and one dollar for the Offering. It will be a wonderful day and each one will get a thrill. Forty thousand at the Opening Service would also be a demonstration of our strength and love for our Church.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania never forgets that there is a two-fold purpose before the Church of God, viz:

(a) The spiritual upbuilding of the children of God; and

(b) The Conversion of the world to Christ.

In the Parishes and Missions of our own Diocese we seek to build up the children of God by instruction, by worship, by sacrament, by faithful pastoral visitation and by the engaging of each member in some department of Christian service.

The conversion of the whole world to Christ is the great commission of the Master to His Apostles, who said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." We do not question the salvability of all mankind. He has said, "Every creature." What He said to His people during His earthly sojourn He says to us, "When the Son of man cometh will He find the faith upon the earth." We are His body to do His will.

Diocese Shares Equally with National Council in Quota Givings

The Diocese of Pennsylvania never spends one dollar more within the Diocese than she sends to the National Council. This year she did not meet her quota nor did any of the seven largest Dioceses. She gave 71%, but this was the largest percentage of any of these Dioceses. The next largest percentage being 59%. She made the largest per communicant contribution of any of these Dioceses. The five small counties that comprise our Diocese gave more than the combined gifts of the VI, VII and VIII Provinces of the Church. We thank God for this Missionary zeal. It is the evidence that the faith of Christ has gripped our life.

Is Happy in His Work as Bishop

I have had a very happy year. I love my work and I want to give to God every waking hour in service or in preparation. This will never wear a man out, nor make him unhappy. It will thrill him. It is not work, but worry, that wears. God has in large measure delivered me from that. Dr. McIntyre, the White House physician, has said that President Roosevelt is healthier than when he first entered upon his duties; and he attributes it to his cheerful, optimistic outlook, never expecting trouble. Someone asks why doesn't the President worry, to which he replies,

"Possibly because he has so much to worry about that no human being could cover the ground, and he doesn't even try." Possibly that is true also in my case. Someone said to Morse, "You must be very proud of your great invention. How wonderful is the Morse Code." To this he replied, "It is not mine. God said to me, 'I want to reveal a great thing to the world; if you will obediently walk with me, I will use you as my instrument.'"

I feel that God has a great work for our Diocese. Unworthy though I am, I have been chosen by God to be the Bishop and leader. I will not worry over results that may not always be as I wish; but I will strive with all my frailties of mind and body, and no one is more conscious of them than myself, to walk with Him, that through me He may reveal to His people the greatness of their calling, and the wonder of their opportunity.

"O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face."

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

HUGH LATIMER BURLESON, Assistant to the Presiding Bishop and First Vice-President of The National Council, died at Custer, South Dakota, on August 1, 1933, from an attack of angina pectoris, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born at Northfield, Minnesota, on April 25, 1865, receiving his early education at the Racine Grammar School and at Racine College, where he graduated in 1887. Going to the General Theological Seminary, he was made Deacon in 1893 and ordained Priest the year following, serving as Curate at the Church of The Holy Communion in New York City during his Diaconate. From 1894 to 1898 he was Rector at S. Mark's Church, Waupaca, Wis.; 1898 to 1900, Assistant at S. Luke's Church, Rochester, N. Y.; 1900 to 1909, Dean at Gethsemane Cathedral, Fargo, S. D.; when he became Secretary to the National Board of Missions and Editor of the Spirit of Missions. He was an Examining Chaplain in Fond du Lac from 1894 to 1898; President of the Council of Advice in North Dakota, 1900 to 1909, and a member of the National Council from 1926. On December 14, 1916, he was consecrated Fourth Missionary Bishop of South Dakota by Bishops Tuttle, Greer and Edsall, resigning in 1931. From 1928 to 1931 he acted as Assessor to the Presiding Bishop, when he became the Assistant. The son of a pioneer Missionary among the Indians, he was intensely interested in that work, being an adopted son of the Oneida Tribe. Four of his brothers also received Holy Orders in the Church. A great leader, he was even more a discoverer of leaders, quick to see and nurture the peculiar personality of all he met with. Wherever he went, he gave of himself. Few men have had his widespread influence, and fewer still have used their influence so nobly and brilliantly.

HENRY BOND RESTARICK, Third Bishop of Honolulu and First American Bishop of that Missionary District, died

December 8, 1933, in the eightieth year of his age. He was born in Somersetshire, England, on December 26, 1854, receiving his early education in Bridgewater School, England, and graduating from Griswold College, Davenport, Iowa, in 1881. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained Priest the year following by the Bishop of Iowa, serving his Diaconate at Trinity Church, Muscatine. In 1882 he accepted a call as Rector to Saint Paul's Church, San Diego, California, where he remained for thirty years. During this time he served also as Dean of the Convocation, Examining Chaplain and Deputy to the General Convention. On July 2, 1902, he was consecrated Bishop of the Missionary District of Honolulu by Bishops Nichols, Jaggar and Kendrick, retiring in 1902 because of ill health. Honolulu had been served as a Diocese of the English Church from 1861 until after the Spanish-American War, when the American Church took it over as a Missionary District. During his Episcopate he established S. Andrew's Cathedral, the Iolani School, and S. Andrew's Priory, as well as other Institutions, both religious and civic. He was the author of several books and much loved by all his people.

EDWARD CAMPION ACHESON, Sixth Bishop of Connecticut, died at his home in Middletown on January 1, 1934, after several months' illness, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He was born in Woolwich, England, on April 7, 1858, receiving his early education at Union College, Toronto, Canada, and graduating from the University there in 1889. He was made Deacon on June 10, 1888, and ordained Priest on July 14, 1889, in Canada. During his Diaconate he served as Curate at All Saints Church, Toronto, accepting a call to S. George's Church, New York City, as Curate, in 1889. From 1892 to 1915 he was Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Middletown, Connecticut, being consecrated Suffragan Bishop of Connecticut on November 4, 1915, by Bishops Brewster, Lawrence and Lines, and becoming Coadjutor in 1926. On Bishop Brewster's resignation two years later he succeeded as Diocesan. During the World War he served on the Red Cross and as a Chaplain in France.

JAMES DOW MORRISON, First Bishop of Duluth, died at his home in Ogdensburg, New York, on January 30, 1934, in the ninetieth year of his age. He was born in Waddington, New York, on October 16, 1844, graduating from McGill University, Montreal, Canada. He was made Deacon in 1869 by the Bishop of Quebec and ordained Priest the year following by the Bishop of Montreal. He served as Missionary in Vermont, and at Hemmingford, Quebec, from 1869 to 1871. From 1871 to 1875 he was Rector of Christ Church, Herkhimer; from 1875 to 1897 at S. John's Church, Ogdensburg, acting as Archdeacon from 1882, as an Examining Chaplain from 1872, and a Deputy to the General Convention in 1883 and 1897. In 1897 he was consecrated as Missionary Bishop of Duluth by Bishops Doane, Huntington and Scarborough, becoming Bishop when the Diocese was organized in 1907. He resigned his jurisdiction in 1921 because of advancing years.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

ALLEN RACHELLE VAN METER, Executive Secretary of the Diocese, died without warning in his home at Chelsea, New Jersey, on May 3, 1933, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia July 18, 1875, graduating from Trinity College, Hartford, in 1899, and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1902. He was made Deacon that same year and served as Secretary of the Church Students Missionary Society in the United States and Canada until he volunteered for Missionary Work in China in 1903, being located at Hankow. He was ordained to the Priesthood in 1904, establishing a School and Church at Kiukiang. In 1907 he came back to the Diocese as Rector at All Saints, Torresdale, with charge of Redeemer Mission, Andalusia. From 1915 to 1921 he was Dean of the Cathedral of Saint Paul at Erie, Pennsylvania, returning to Pennsylvania in this latter year to be Rector at Calvary, Germantown, where he remained until his election as Executive Secretary in 1929. He acted as Dean of the Germantown Convocation from 1925 to 1929, serving also on the Church Pension Fund Commission in 1914, as Chairman of the Social Service Committee in 1917, and on the Executive Council from 1925. He was a Deputy to the General Convention in 1919. Kindly and courteous and sympathetic, he extended his interest to the Federal Council of Churches in whose councils he took an active part.

WILLIAM HERBERT BURK, Rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, died on June 30, 1933, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. He was born April 23, 1867, receiving his early education in the Public Schools here and in New Jersey. Graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1890 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1893, he was made Deacon that same year and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Scarborough, taking duty at the Church of the Ascension, Gloucester. In 1894 he came to this Diocese as Curate at Saint John's Church, Norristown. In 1897 he became Priest-in-Charge of All Saints Church, Norristown, a Mission of Saint John's, and Rector in 1898. Here he remained until 1911, when he accepted the Rectorship at Valley Forge, which he had started in 1903 as a Chapel. He started also Trinity Mission, Gulph, in 1913, and was Priest-in-Charge until 1915. From 1910 until 1919 he was Dean of the Convocation of Norristown and for many years on the Faculty of the Church Training and Deaconess School. His great work, however, and for which he received the Philadelphia Award in 1927 was the development of a nation-wide interest in Valley Forge to commemorate the spot by a Wayside Chapel where George Washington offered his prayer in the winter of 1778. The cornerstone was laid on the 125th Anniversary of the Evacuation of Valley Forge and the first Service was held on Washington's Birthday, 1905, the building being completed in 1915, with its Cloister of the Colonies and other memorials.

SAMUEL NORRIS CRAVEN, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at the Episcopal Hospital on November 17, 1933, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on January 10, 1863, of Presbyterian parents, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania with a degree of Bachelor of Science in 1883. In 1899 he became a Lay Reader in the Diocese of New Jersey, being made Deacon in 1901 and attached to the Associate Mission at Trenton. He was ordained to the Priesthood in 1910, accepting a position as Vicar at Saint John's Chapel, where he remained until 1914 when he became Curate at Trinity Church. In December, 1914, he became Curate at Saint Mark's Church, Philadelphia, and also Vicar of Saint Mary's Chapel, on January 1, 1915. In the spring of 1933 he suffered a severe breakdown, and retired from active work on November 1st.

SEAVER MILTON HOLDEN, a retired Priest of this Diocese, died on December 27, 1933, in the seventy-third year of his age, at Woodbridge, Connecticut, after a three days' illness of pneumonia. He was born in Philadelphia on April 4, 1860, graduating from Trinity College in 1882 and from Berkeley Divinity School in 1885. He was made Deacon that same year by Bishop Niles and ordained to the Priesthood the next year by Bishop Williams. From 1885 to 1887 he was Assistant Minister at Saint John's Church, Waterbury, Conn.; 1887 to 1889 Warden at Jarvis Hall, Denver, Colo.; 1889 to 1891 Rector at Grace Church, Mansfield, Ohio; 1891 to 1893 Rector at Grace Church, Chillicothe, Missouri; 1893 to 1897 Dean of Saint George's Pro-Cathedral, Kansas City; 1897 to 1901 Rector at Saint John's Church, Sharon, Pennsylvania; coming to this Diocese in 1902 as Rector of Saint Stephen's Church, Wissahickon; Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Bristol, in 1911; Priest-in-Charge of Incarnation Mission, Morrisville, in 1918, retiring on December 15, 1933. He served as Examining Chaplain in all four Dioceses with which he was connected, as Deputy to the General Convention in 1892, on the Standing Committee of Western Missouri from 1894 to 1896. The burial service were held at Christ Church, Ansonia.

PHILIP SIDNEY IRWIN, a Chaplain at the City Mission, died January 23, 1934, at the Episcopal Hospital, in the seventieth year of his age. He was born in County Wicklow, Ireland, December 30, 1864, receiving his early education at S. Columba, Dublin; S. Edward, Oxford, and Ely Theological College. Made Deacon in 1888 and ordained in 1889 in the Church of England, he served at various stations in Ireland and Bahama Islands until 1908, when he came to Christ Church, Pomfret, Connecticut, and was elected Rector the year following. From 1916 to 1921 he was Archdeacon of Colored Work in Southern Florida, being severely beaten by the Ku Klux Klan at one time. In 1921 he came to this Diocese, with special work at the Home for Consumptives at Chestnut Hill, where he was deeply loved in his ministry.

HENRY ALEXANDER FIELD HOYT, Rector Emeritus of Saint John the Evangelist's Church, Lower Merion, died April 22, 1934, in the ninetieth year of his age. He was born in New York City on October 12, 1844, receiving his early education at Worcester Academy, Massachusetts. He graduated from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1879, being made Deacon the previous year by Bishop Lee and ordained Priest by Bishop Stevens in 1880. He was Rector at Saint John's Free Church from 1878 to 1885; Chaplain at the Episcopal Hospital from 1885 to 1892; Rector at Trinity Church, Oxford, from 1892 to 1895; and at Saint John's Church from 1895 to 1924, when he retired from active duty at the age of 80 years and was elected Rector Emeritus. During his Rectorship the present buildings were erected. A Chaplain in three wars, he held the title of Major in the Sixth Infantry.

Of Clergy not Canonically Resident:

GEORGE ALBERT HANNA, a Priest of the Diocese of Newark, serving as Priest-in-Charge of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, died from a heart attack in the Osteopathic Hospital on August 2, 1933, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia on March 1, 1875, being brought up in S. Simeon's Parish and receiving his early education in Germantown Academy and the University of Pennsylvania, attending also Harvard and the University of Chicago. He was made Deacon in 1901 and ordained Priest in 1902, when he became Priest-in-Charge of S. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia. In 1907 he became Curate at S. Agnes' Chapel, New York City, and three years later Rector of the Church of The Holy Communion, South Orange, New Jersey, resigning from this work because of impaired health in 1931, when he returned to Philadelphia. Having somewhat recovered he accepted a Locum Tenens at Jenkintown in January, 1933, being elected Rector on April 1st, but never presented a Letter Dimmisory to this Diocese.

Of Deaconesses of this Diocese:

FRANCES ALBIN-JONES, a retired Deaconess of this Diocese and a graduate of the first class at the Church Training and Deaconess House, died on September 5, 1933, in Christ Church Hospital in the eighty-fourth year of her age. She was born at Ramsgatem, England, in 1850, daughter of the Rev. James Darnell of Kent, and was the widow of Henry Albin-Jones, of Ottawa, Canada, being set apart on the day of her graduation, January 6, 1893. For two years she worked at Helena, Montana, under Bishop Brewer, going to Detroit, Michigan, in 1895, where she worked under the Rev. Dr. Prall until he resigned. She then came to Saint Nathanael's Mission, Philadelphia, where she served as Deaconess until her retirement in 1910.

AMELIA SANFORD, a retired Deaconess of the Diocese, died at Christ Church Hospital on October 25, 1933, in the sixty-sixth year of her age. She was born in Farmington, Connecticut, on April 26, 1868. Graduating from the Church Training and Deaconess House in 1906, she became a Candidate under Bishop Whitaker, but was not set apart until Saint Barnabas' Day, 1931, for family reasons, although she was always active in Social Service and Church work, being connected with the City Mission, the Bedford Street Mission, and finally with Saint Barnabas Church at Third and Dauphin Streets, until failing health compelled her to retire in 1932. The daughter and granddaughter of a Clergyman, with two brothers and a nephew in the Ministry, her sister for many years the House-Mother at the Deaconess House, her whole loyalty and effort was along Church lines. A musician of no mean ability, it was ever her delight to serve in whatever opportunity offered.

APPENDIX D

Report of the Standing Committee

A special meeting of the Standing Committee was called and held May 6, 1933, and upon receipt of notice from the Secretary of the Convention, it was recorded that the following were duly elected:

Rev. Drs. Jefferys, Bartlett, McIlhenny, Washburn, Joiner; Messrs. Bonsall, Houston, Frazier, Barba, Williams.

The meeting was opened with prayer and the Standing Committee then proceeded to organize with Dr. Washburn in the Chair.

Upon nomination unanimously approved the Rev. Dr. Edward M. Jefferys was elected President.

Upon nomination unanimously approved Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., was elected Secretary. Due to the continued illness of Mr. Frazier, Mr. William P. Barba was requested to act as Secretary pro tem.

There were present the following:

Rev. Drs. Jefferys, Bartlett, McIlhenny, Washburn, Joiner; Messrs. Bonsall, Houston, Barba, Williams.

By arrangement the Committee received a deputation of the Vestry of S. Mary's, Hamilton Village, and considered a memorial requesting dissolution of their pastoral relation. By resolution, consideration was continued until a second special meeting on May 19, arrangements being made to have appear—the Vestry by deputation and the Rector. At this meeting, May 19, the Standing Committee requested briefs and other information to be filed, and these were received and considered at a meeting on June 6, 1933. Whereupon by resolution the Bishop was advised to proceed to the dissolution of the Pastoral relation in S. Mary's Parish, Hamilton Village.

At the meeting on June 6, the Rev. Dr. John R. Logan was nominated to fill the vacancy on the Board of Triers caused by the death of the Rev. Allen R. Van Meter.

At the meeting on October 3, 1933, the Standing Committee voted to permit the placing of a mortgage not to exceed $5,000 on the unconsecrated property of the Parish of S. Luke's, Bustleton.

At the meeting on November 14, 1933, the Standing Committee voted to consent to the transfer of the property of Trinity Church, Buckingham, to The Church Foundation.

Also the Standing Committee voted consent to the placing of a mortgage of $2,000 on the Rectory of St. Stephen's, Wissahickon.

Also consented to the demolition of the building of the Church of the Transfiguration, 3336 Woodland Avenue, should The Church Foundation so decide.

At the meeting on December 5, 1933, Dr. Washburn introduced the matter of the observance of the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the Diocese, and after favorable discussion the Standing Committee voted its support.

Meeting January 9, 1934, the Standing Committee with deep sadness recorded upon its Minutes a memorial upon the death of its highly valued member, Edward Horne Bonsall.

At the same meeting, there was received from the Bishop a communication concerning the holding of services at S. Mary's Chapel on the Cathedral site, the matter being complicated by the question of obtaining consents of the three neighboring Parishes. The Bishop's records showed that these parishes had been invited to appear at the meeting of the Standing Committee on January 9, 1934, and no appearances being made, the Standing Committee voted to permit such services.

The Bishop communicated the letter of the Rev. Joseph S. Loughran requesting that his resignation from the Ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church be accepted, and as the record and discussion showed no reasons based upon moral grounds or grounds concerning personal conduct, the Standing Committee voted to recommend that the Bishop proceed with his deposition.

At the meeting February 6, 1933, request was received asking consent to the placing of a mortgage in the sum of $15,000 on S. Mary's Church, Broad and South Streets. The proceeds to be applied to liquidation of outstanding accounts on the property of the Cathedral. Consent was granted.

Mr. Spencer Ervin was unanimously elected to the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Bonsall.

At the meeting of March 6, the Standing Committee nominated as follows:

Members of the Board of Council of the City Mission:

Laity: Dr. Wilburn P. Klapp, Dr. Henry D. Jump, E. Perot Bissell, Dr. Richard H. Meade, Jr., J. Lee Patton, Esq., Orville H. Bullitt, Henry N. Platt, C. Fenno Hoffman, L. B. Dick, Curtis L. Clay.

Chancellor: The Hon. Roland S. Morris.

Registrar: The Rev. A. H. Hord.

A proposal was submitted to authorize the Standing Committee and The Church Foundation jointly to arrange a sale of the Bishop's residence, 251 South Twenty-second Street, Philadelphia, and out of the proceeds to purchase another Episcopal Residence. Consideration is being given to the proposition, and at a later meeting the Standing Committee will make its recommendation.

At the meeting on May 1, the following Resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Convention of 1917 by resolution authorized the Trustees of the Diocese, acting in conjunction with the Standing Committee of the Diocese, to sell the Episcopal Residence on South Twenty-second Street; RESOLVED, That this Convention authorizes the Church Foundation, the legal successors of the Trustees of the Diocese, acting upon the advice of the Standing Committe, to sell the said residence and the lot adjoining it, and also to purchase or erect another building suitable for an Episcopal Residence, if in the opinion of both bodies such sale and/or such purchase and erection would be for the best interests of the Diocese. PROVIDED, That in case of the sale of the said residence the proceeds shall be used or set aside for the purposes set forth in the deed of trust.

Abstract of the Rules of the Standing Committee embodying procedure upon applications, for approval, of Candidates:

IV. In all cases when a person seeks the recommendation of the Standing Committee as a Candidate for Holy Orders, his application shall lie over for one month, and be posted on the Diocesan bill-board, and be published in one of the Church papers, unless two-thirds of the whole Committee shall consent to the contrary.

V. In the case of a Candidate for the Office and Ministration of a Deacon only, desiring to be ordained within one year from his admission as a Candidate, and in the case of a Candidate for Priest's Orders desiring to be ordained Deacon or Priest before the expiration of the full term prescribed by the Canons, the Standing Committee shall await a notification from the Bishop that he deems such abridgment of time expedient.

VI. All Candidates desiring to be recommended by the Standing Committee for Ordination, must lay before the Committee evidence of the fact, and date of their admissions as Candidates, certificates from competent medical examiners that applicants could qualify under the regulations of the Church Pension Fund, also assurance from some representative of the Committee (based upon personal knowledge founded preferably upon an interview in preceding month) that their personality traits are such as give promise of positive usefulness in the Church's Ministry. Each application for endorsement by the Standing Committee of any Postulant or Candidate will be referred to a sub-committee of the Standing Committee consisting of two members, and the application will be in their hands for one month prior to action by the Standing Committee. The sub-committee will examine the Candidate and will render a signed report in writing to the Standing Committee.

VII. In the case of a Postulant, who has been a Minister in some other body of Christians, applying for recommendation to the Bishop as a Candidate for Holy Orders, the application shall be referred to a sub-committee for inquiry, and action shall not be taken thereon until this sub-committee shall have had opportunity to report. The committee shall if it be possible have a personal interview with the applicant.

VIII. The President and Secretary shall be a standing sub-committee, who shall consider and report to the Standing Committee with respect to such elections to the Episcopate, as may require action of the Standing Committee.

During the year the Standing Committee approved of the admission as Candidates for Holy Orders, 10 gentlemen, whose names follow:

Mr. Matthew Wesley Davis

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1933

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1933, audited, is submitted herewith.

The Diocese failed to pay to the National Council its promised expectation of $175,000.00. It paid $161,279.25 and sent in addition $5,899.79, being principally the Whitsunday offering.

In order to meet its obligations for 1933, the Diocese was compelled to borrow $13,661.69, which increased the previous deficit to $28,629.06.

Notwithstanding the fact that the budgets of the General Church and of the Diocese were reduced by $50,000.00, the funds received from the Parishes and Missions and the Diocesan Contributors' Fund failed to meet our expectations.

We desire to call special attention to the comparatively few Parish and Mission Treasurers who are sending in their Missionary money monthly.

The Diocese cannot pay its monthly proportion of Missionary Funds to the National Council and cannot meet its own obligations in the Diocese without borrowing money to do so, unless the Parishes and Missions send such money in regularly.

The following table will show how churches remitted their missionary monies to the Treasurer's office during the year 1933:

The Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer desire to again express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, and to the Parishes and Missions and the Women's Auxiliaries, as well as other organizations of the Diocese, for their co-operation, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council, 1933

INTRODUCTORY

Last year's Report was compiled by Mr. Van Meter, whose unexpected death just after the 1933 Convention was a shock to his many friends. His knowledge of the Diocese was exceeded by none, and he was able to give valuable advice and assistance upon a great variety of matters. May he go on from strength to strength.

It is sometimes interesting to know what a new man thinks of an old organization. Three things have impressed me in my few months of service. One is the great interest and variety of the Diocesan work and of the problems which it raises—for of course there are problems, or there could be no progress. Another is the great amount of time given to this work by a considerable number of busy parish clergy and by some laymen, and the intelligent, devoted, and interested effort consistently made to conduct the Diocesan business and meet its problems in the best way. A third is the loyalty and efficiency of the Church House staff.

Let me now mention briefly a few outstanding matters related to the Departmental Reports subjoined.

I will allude first to the most recent; the completion of arrangements, approved by the Executive Council, April 13, for the conduct of the Mission of S. Giles, Stonehurst, by the Church of the Holy Apostles during a trial period of two years, which it is hoped and expected will end in a permanent establishment. The Mission becomes a chapel of the Church. Holy Apostles is in a neighborhood of decreasing church prospects. The Mission of S. Giles is in an expanding neighborhood. Faith and courage are required for the venture, but Doctor Toop and his vestry have them. We are indebted also to the Provident Trust Company for its invaluable coöperation.

An analogous matter is the revision of mission policy described in the Report of the Department of Missions, which will be aided by a revision of the Canons governing missions to be proposed to this Convention. There are cases when the Diocese should establish and maintain a mission irrespective of the possibility of growth. This is necessary when in no other way can a community or an area be cared for. But in most cases growth may be expected and should appear. The Diocese should, and it is proposed that through Convocational committees and the Department of Missions it shall, continuously aid its missions toward this growth.

There are many other matters which deserve more space than they can be given here. One is the Diocesan Contributors' Fund, at present essential to Diocesan support and certain to be always useful to Diocesan growth. It is, however, even more valuable as a means of bringing our laity into contact with the Diocese. Here in Pennsylvania parishes antedated the Diocese, but this was a reverse development, due to peculiar circumstances. In fact, it would be more correct to say that in the Colonial period our Diocese was the Diocese of London, and that after the Revolution we merely organized one nearer home. Be this as it may, the point is that the Diocese has always been the native center of our ecclesiastical organization and that a more general consciousness of the fact would aid parishes, Diocese, and National Church alike.

It is often said that we have lost much missionary interest since parishes ceased to be responsible for particular missionaries, who appeared before them periodically to describe their work and solicit new gifts. Of course this system handicapped the missionaries who could not or did not leave their base or were not effectual pleaders, and in a planned missionary program such as we now have it could not be continued. But parishes may still devote themselves to particular missions by arrangement with the National Council and through the same body may have missionaries home on leave address their congregations. A Speakers' Bureau in this Diocese will aid them to obtain these missionary speakers.

The use of the Every-Member Visitation is growing. More parishes and missions each year are learning that it is a most effectual way under modern conditions to promote parish unity. It is not necessarily the only way, but it is certainly an effectual way when properly planned and conducted. Many parishes and missions now hesitating to adopt it might well give it a try. The assistance of the Diocesan Field Department is available.

The Department of Religious Education has had a notable year. The enrolment in teacher-training courses has been large and the courses themselves admirable. More parishes and missions should know of the assistance which this department can provide for the solution of Church School problems.

Institutions in the Diocese have an exceptional opportunity while Mr. Woodruff's long experience in social service is available. Sometimes there is much to be gained by getting a competent outside viewpoint upon the conduct of an organization. Church institutions ought to be in the van of progress. Sometimes antiquated policies or inexpert management prevent this from being so.

The Diocese gets good publicity except among its own laity. Is it not part of a vestryman's job to know what is going on in the Diocese? Reading the Church News is the way to learn. The clergy can be of assistance here by referring occasionally in their addresses and talks to articles in the News.

The Reports of the Departments of the Council and of the Convocations follow.

SPENCER ERVIN
Vice-Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

By resolution, the Diocesan Convention of 1933 referred to the Department of Christian Social Service the resolution with regard to the Scottsboro case. The Department at once got in touch with the Bishop of Alabama from whom very full reports have been received on the various developments of this important case during the year. From these reports it may be said that our Church representatives are deeply concerned regarding the several phases of the situation and are giving to them most careful thought and attention. It has been a privilege to learn first-hand of the attitude of churchmen in the matter. It should be reported for the benefit of the Diocese that much of the trouble has been due to outside influences seeking to utilize the incident to create class prejudice. Had there been no outside influence, it is believed that the case would have long ago been satisfactorily settled in the interest of complete justice to all concerned.

During the year the Department sponsored three conferences for workers in the various Diocesan Children's Agencies and is planning similar meetings for the board members of these agencies. As a result of the meetings there has come about a better and fuller understanding of the work of each organization, and on the part of some of the members the desire for a co-ordinated program that will insure our Church children the best possible care.

The work at the Home of S. Michael and All Angels for crippled colored children has engaged the interest of the Department. The newly appointed Board of Trustees has its wholehearted support. In view of the desperate situation which the Home of S. Michael and All Angels faces as a result of financial losses, the Department endorsed three resolutions to be submitted to the Executive Council: (1) that all Church institutions, whether under the direct control of the Diocese or not, should submit regular financial reports to the Executive Council; (2) that the matter of bonding all individuals in any way responsible for funds of the Church institutions be considered; and (3) that inquiry be made into the possibility of holding former board members of the Home responsible for financial losses.

The Department has been interested in the efforts being made to continue the work at S. John's House, a Church settlement, and a committee was appointed to assist the Dean of the Convocation of North Philadelphia in making plans for raising the necessary funds to support this House.

The Church and its work among the Negroes in Philadelphia is a matter with which the Department is much concerned; a special report was prepared and presented to the Executive Council. The Dean of the Convocation of North Philadelphia requested the assistance of the Department in meeting the needs of the Negro population and, as a result, plans are under way to secure a parish house for one of the North Philadelphia colored congregations.

Consideration was given to the subject of liquor control while legislation was pending at Harrisburg, and laws of other communities and countries were studied.

Among the other questions to which the Department gave close consideration at the appropriate time were the matter of supplying Chaplains for the Reforestation Camps, Marriage Laws, Care of the Blind and Other Handicapped, Child Labor, Unemployment Relief, and the use of Parish Houses for leisure-time activities.

In some instances special speakers were secured to discuss problems to which the Department is giving attention.

Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, under the auspices of the Department, gave three lectures before the Clerical Brotherhood of the Diocese.

In April, 1933, the members of the Department were the guests of the Chairman at an exhibition of playground work.

Among the subjects to which the Department is now giving attention are: Pensions for Deaconesses, Unemployment Insurance, and Sterilization.

Respectfully submitted,

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF
Chairman

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Finance Department has held its meetings regularly on the second Wednesday of each month and the sessions have been largely attended.

On account of unusual business conditions it has been necessary to give much thought and study to the many financial problems affecting the Diocese, but more particularly the balancing of the budget which has been very materially reduced during the past two years in order to meet the reduced income.

The Diocesan Contributors' Fund, which was created in 1932, has proven itself invaluable in providing additional income to assist in balancing the budget.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON
Chairman

FIELD DEPARTMENT

The Field Department first records its loss sustained in the death of the Rev. Allen Van Meter, the Secretary of the Executive Council. Mr. Van Meter gave no little of his time and interest to the work of the Department and in every way prosecuted its plans. So great were his contributions that he could have been rightly called the Field Worker in the Diocese.

The Department has held meetings only when it was necessary to consider problems referred to it. During the year it planned for the Every-Member Canvass. It secured the services of the Rt. Rev. E. M. Cross, Bishop of Spokane, for the month of October. Bishop Cross visited many parishes, speaking on behalf of our Missionary opportunities in the Domestic Field. Two evening suppers were held in the Penn Athletic Club, attended by over 150 laymen. The Rev. Charles H. Collett and Bishop Cross addressed these meetings. A meeting of the women was also held, the first of its kind in the Diocese, at which both the above-named speakers made addresses. Mrs. John E. Hill, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, was responsible for the attendance of over 400 women, and to her is due the entire praise for this fine piece of work.

The Every-Member Canvass is not yet adopted by all parishes and missions. A survey shows that:

66	had a visitation with canvass
2	expect to have a visitation with canvass
1	hopes to have a visitation with canvass
1	may have a visitation with canvass
2	have canvassed a selected list
2	abandoned canvass before completion
1	canvassed by letter
10	had visitation without canvass
36	had no visitation or canvass
2	institutional chapels with no congregation
1	answer incomplete
124
90	failed to answer inquiry
214

The failure to complete the canvass is probably the major cause for the inadequate support of the Church.

Early this year the National Council asked Bishop Logan H. Roots to be one of six missionaries from the Orient, India, and Egypt to visit America and present the conditions of the countries and their religious needs. The Laymen's Foreign Missionary Society sponsored this conference. In this capacity Bishop Roots came to Philadelphia. The Department arranged a mass meeting held in Holy Trinity Church, December 13. Accompanying Bishop Roots was Doctor Wu, president of Gingling College. Doctor Wu spoke to regional meetings of the Auxiliary at Chestnut Hill and Overbrook.

The Speakers' Bureau has functioned only fairly. The vacancy in the office of Executive Secretary and the financial condition of the National Council have combined to make the obtaining of speakers unsatisfactory. In the future Mr. Spencer Ervin will handle this office.

Future Plans

The plans for this autumn are largely in the hands of the National Field Department. It is their plan to submit the names of leaders, composed of a Foreign Missionary, probably a Bishop, a Domestic Missionary, and a Woman's Auxiliary worker to the Bishop, and then the Diocesan Department is asked to coöperate and arrange for two or three regional conferences of two days each.

The suggested program of the conferences is:

1. Meeting of clergy.
2. Meeting of women of Auxiliary.
3. Small meeting of leading laymen.
4. Large mass meeting of clergy, laymen, and members of Woman's Auxiliary.

The expenses of the meetings will be met by offerings at the mass meeting.

The promotional literature for this year is entitled "Purpose of God"—and the stress will be laid on Stewardship. The Every-Member Canvass will stress its purpose as educational, evangelistic, pastoral, and promotional.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Quite a number of additional parishes this year have availed themselves of the advantageous fire insurance perpetual policy of the Church Properties Fire Insurance Corporation.

The records show:

	Number of Churches	Amount of Insurance
Parishes	42	$1,879,730
Missions, etc	66	1,872,854
Total	108	$3,752,584

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

During the past year the Department, with the approval of the Bishop, adopted the following rules of procedure in the establishment and development of diocesan missions:

1. Proposals for new missions, after approval by the appropriate Convocation, shall be brought before the Department of Missions, and subsequently before the Executive Council of the Diocese.

2. In considering a proposal for a new mission, the Department of Missions shall take up the following questions, and report on them to the Executive Council:

(a) The approximate territorial area to be served.

(b) The estimated number of communicants in this area.

(c) The estimated number of unchurched persons in this area.

(d) The distance to at least three of the nearest parishes or missions of the Episcopal Church.

(e) Whether or not the proposed prospect, within five years, of paying in full the salary of its missionary.

(f) Other facts bearing on the proposal for the mission.

3. If the proposed mission is not likely, within five years, to be able to pay in full the salary of its missionary, the Department shall consider whether or not there is any way in which the needs of the locality can be served without establishing a diocesan mission. If there is such a way it should be adopted.

(a) If the situation is best met by the establishment of a parochial mission by a neighboring parish, provision should be made for such a Diocesan contact with the parish in regard to the mission as may serve to keep the Diocese informed of the progress and finances of the mission. This is a matter for advance agreement with the rector and the vestry of the parish.

(b) A parish ought not to be asked to undertake a mission if doing so will diminish its own payments to the Diocese. Nor ought the mission to be so conducted as to become a future liability to the Diocese.

4. If the proposed mission is not likely within five years to be able to pay in full the salary of its missionary, and the locality cannot be served except by a diocesan mission, the Department shall determine the most effective and economical way of establishing such a mission.

5. If the proposed mission is likely within five years to be able to pay in full the salary of its missionary, the following matters may be considered:

I. A trial period of a year in loaned or rented premises, and if this trial proves satisfactory, then

II. Sites available.

(a) Cost of ground.

(b) Building plans: The character of building suitable may vary with the locality. In some instances a portable chapel may be best; in others a plan for a permanent unit with provision for expansion may be advisable. In all cases provision should be made for dignified worship. The Committee on Church Building shall be consulted in each instance according to Canon.

(c) Cost of such a building.

(d) Amount of local subscriptions.

(e) Amount to be supplied by the Diocese.

(f) Method of financing: Mortgages, except instalment mortgages, seem in general inadvisable, as failing to provide for gradual extinction of the debt, and this imposing a dangerous long-term burden of interest.

6. If at the end of five years a mission established under No. 5 supra is not self-supporting, the Department shall in all cases then consider whether or not, and how, the mission shall be continued, basing its decision on all the facts.

7. The Department shall establish a committee which shall include the Chairman of the Department, the Deans of the Convocation, the Vice-Chairman of the Executive Council, and the Archdeacon, for the following purposes:

(a) To list all existing missions, parochial, diocesan, or not at present subject to any specific supervision.

(b) To provide, through Convocational evaluations or otherwise, a sufficient history and description of the mission, stating the date and circumstances of its foundation; the number of families then and now on its rolls; the amount of capital investment on the mission and its present value; the amount paid in to the mission by the Diocese or supporting parish; the amounts contributed by the mission toward its own support and for diocesan or parochial purposes, and such other facts as may serve for a permanent record assisting the Department to determine its policy regarding the mission and informing the Diocese.

(c) In general, to formulate and suggest to the Bishop for his approval a sound, comprehensive and unified program for the foundation and supervision of missions within the Diocese, and to cause this program, when so approved, to be given publicity in the Diocese.

(d) To submit annually to the Department of Missions an informative report and appraisal of the missionary work of the Diocese in the past year.

NOTE.—The report for the first year should give a full history of each mission from its foundation, stating all the facts which bear on the value of the work. Subsequent reports need then only give a summary of changes in the past year.

These rules provide, among other things, for (1) a more or less definite limit to the time in which a new mission must attain a real measure of self-support; (2) a periodical review of the condition of the missionary work of the Diocese for the purpose, chiefly, of determining, where the work is not making a reasonable degree of progress, why this is so and what can be done to insure progress; and (3) the establishment of a central committee which shall, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake to formulate a comprehensive program for the foundation and supervision of missions within the Diocese.

The Department, under instructions from the Executive Council and in order to bring the cost of maintaining the diocesan missionary work within the amount appropriated by the Council, has undertaken an evaluation of the present diocesan missions. This will be completed as quickly as is consistent with a thorough examination of the whole field.

The Department adopted and recommended to the Executive Council for submission to the Diocesan Convention a revision of the Canons relating to the missionary work of the Diocese. This revision was drafted by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, Chairman of the Committee on Canons.

The following changes in the personnel of diocesan missionaries have taken place during the year:

Rev. Geo. C. Anderson has gone to S. Anne's, Willow Grove, under the Dean.

Rev. E. M. Baczewski has become also Priest in Charge at Advent, Philadelphia.

Rev. H. E. Kaufmann has become Priest-in-Charge at Trinity, Collingdale.

Rev. G. W. Lamb has resigned as Priest-in-Charge at S. Anne's, Willow Grove.

Rev. W. D. Parker has become Priest-in-Charge at Trinity, Buckingham.

Rev. J. O. Pienionzek, Priest-in-Charge at Advent, Philadelphia, died.

Rev. Lewis Sasse has become Priest-in-Charge at S. Wilfred, Dolington.

Rev. G. H. Boyd has become Assistant Minister at Country Centre Mission.

Rev. S. M. Holden, Priest-in-Charge at Incarnation, Morrisville, died December 27.

Rev. W. O. Roome has resigned as Priest-in-Charge at S. Andrew's, Somerton.

As a step preliminary to carrying out of the requirement of the rules of procedure referred to above, that the central committee shall submit annually an informative report and appraisal of the missionary work of the Diocese, we have brought together in one table, printed below, statistical information regarding the present diocesan missions. Heretofore this information has been printed in six tables under the respective Convocation reports. A summary of baptisms, confirmations, etc., is printed at the end of the table. Next year we shall provide, as required by the rules of the Department, "a sufficient history and description of each mission, stating the date and circumstances of its foundation; the number of families then and now on its rolls; the amount of capital investment in the mission, and its present value, etc."

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Department of Publicity has completed successfully another year of service to the whole church. It has served not only individuals, churches, and groups within the Diocese, but has contributed cuts, articles, information, etc., far beyond the bounds of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The members of the Episcopal Church can justly be proud of the work that is being done by this Department. It would be more correct to say, "Mr. Samuel Warnock and his able and efficient assistant, Miss Cairns," than to say, "Department." Neither one spares himself or herself in meeting the wants of the clergy and laity. It has been an object lesson in perseverance to see Mr. Warnock, handicapped as he is, present in his office every day.

The Working of the Department

The word "publicity" is so broad in its definition it thereby gives a wide scope to the work of this department. Any person coming into the Church House finds a cordial welcome in the office of publicity, which now contains the "Information Bureau." Like in all information bureaus, the questions asked are numerous and about everything under the sun. The office becomes a clearing house for all departments and organizations of the church. Incidentally it keeps some of the offices of the Church House from being unnecessarily bothered. The Department continues to have the responsibility of assigning rooms in the Church House for all meetings, and maintains a schedule of such meetings. Last year there was a total of 533 meetings held in the Church House, an increase of twenty-two over the previous year. It should be noted that this actually covers nine months, as very few meetings are held in June, and possibly not more than three or four in the months of July and August.

"The Church News"

It is gratifying to report that, notwithstanding economic conditions which have compelled a number of diocesan publications in other jurisdictions to suspend publication or to greatly reduce the size of their papers, our own publication has been able to come through the year once more without any appeal for financial aid from the Diocese and without materially reducing its size. It operated at a small deficit (less than $200), which it was able to take care of out of the reserve it had been able to accumulate in the past. Its ability to weather the conditions has not been an easy task, and has been only possible through the loyalty of our advertisers. Indications at this time would seem to point out that the paper will be able to maintain itself and close the current year without impairing its capital. A number of former advertisers, who for economic reasons felt called upon to withdraw or to reduce their advertising, have assured the management they will return as soon as business conditions warrant.

The Church Extension Fund

Since 1923 this Department has been charged with the duty of preparing each Call of the Church Extension Fund, following the designation of the beneficiary by the Bishop and the Department of Missions. During the year 1933 the total amount contributed as the result of the three Calls amounted to $6,899.67, plus $167.33, the latter representing pledges due from previous Calls. The 1933 beneficiaries were: Holy Comforter, Aronimink, January, 1933; S. Anne's, Willow Grove, April, 1933; S. John's, West Oak Lane, October, 1933. In our 1933 Annual Report attention was called to the shrinkage in income from the Calls. There has been a further loss of subscribers in the year just closed. During the five-year period covered by the Diocesan Campaign for Missions and Institutions, the fund was barred from making any appeal for new subscribers by reason of the promise made by Bishop Garland at the beginning of the campaign. The business conditions existing since the end of the five-year period made it inadvisable to inaugurate a movement to enroll new members. The fact that the fund had been developed to the point where its contributions approximated from $10,000 to $12,000 each year, may justify a recommendation that some consideration be given to the question of rebuilding its enrolment of members since the income is slowly dropping.

Reference Bureau

Attention was called in the Department's last report of the Scrapbook Index on file making available considerable information about the Church published in the secular newspapers, covering a period of fourteen years. Quite considerable use was made of this during the year just closed. This information is being added to. Every article of reference value which has appeared in The Church News since 1919 has been indexed and is quickly available, in addition to much other information gathered from Church publications in other Dioceses. The Department is now gradually indexing everything of more than minor importance that has been published in all issues of The Church News from its first issue up to the year 1919, so as to make this easily available for reference.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In 1933 the Department of Religious Education had working contacts with 130 parishes and missions, an increase of 19 over the previous year. Room 30 was open daily from 9 A. M. to 4.30 P. M., and Saturdays from 9 to 12, for nine and one-half months, with Miss Gertrude Brodhead as the increasingly capable secretary.

The growing response to the Department's work is very encouraging. During the nine and one-half months over a thousand visitors came to the office seeking help of one sort or another, making the average more than five visitors per day. In addition to this, the Normal School and various conferences and meetings brought out many teachers and leaders. The telephone and letters put the Department in touch with many others. The small staff often worked overtime.

From fifty to seventy books and plays are usually in use from the Lending Library, which was recatalogued during the summer months, and has some fine new books.

Our Field Worker, Miss Elizabeth Frazier, has done excellent work and endeared herself to many. Workers from sixty-eight different parishes and missions have come to her with their Church School, young people's, and other educational problems. She has served on numerous committees and addressed or led discussions in many meetings throughout the Diocese. Her intensive field work (where she has been loaned for a space of time) has been as follows:

4 weeks—S. Simon the Cyrenian
4 weeks—Trinity, Swarthmore
4 weeks—S. Mark's, Frankford
3 weeks—Ascension, Rhawnhurst
2 weeks—Church of the Advocate (continuing the work begun in December, 1932)
2 weeks—Holy Trinity, Philadelphia
2 weeks—S. Peter's, Phoenixville

She visited and evaluated the educational work in sixteen other parishes and missions, giving only one or two visits to each.

The type help the Field Worker gave was as varied as it was valuable. For rectors she planned curricula and other programs. Her individual conferences with teachers gave new inspiration. She advised those who were puzzled about methods, suggested new books, pictures, maps, and other materials to those who had been unable to find what they needed. In a number of schools the observations of her trained eye led to improved use of existing equipment, and her suggestions brought about simple changes in time schedules and grading that greatly increased the effectiveness of the school.

Rectors and leaders who have used Miss Frazier are constantly reporting how practical her suggestions are, and how clearly she recognizes the limitations with which the average parish has to struggle, whether it be with leadership or equipment.

The Department met monthly, except in July and August, with an average attendance of eighteen members. Rev. Louis W. Pitt served as chairman, Rev. J. Jarden Guenther as secretary, and Miss Lily Cheston, who gives over half of her time to the work of the Department, as chairman of the Executive Committee.

There were five commissions:

Adult—Rev. Royden K. Yerkes, Ph.D., Chairman
Church School—Miss Hilda Shaul, Chairman
Student—Rev. Howard Fulweiler, Chairman
Teacher Training—Rev. Herbert L. Johnson, Chairman
Young People—Rev. Leicester C. Lewis, Ph.D., Chairman

At each of the reguler monthly meetings the Field Worker, Office Secretary, and five Commissions were called upon for reports, and the special subjects or speakers were as follows:

January —Promotion of the 1933 Lenten Offering
February —"The Folks We Try to Educate," Mr. J. Prentice Murphy
March —Future Leadership Training in the Diocese
April —Creative and Non-creative Religious Education
May —Normal School Plans
June —Reports
September—The Budget: Our Field Work Policy
October —Church School Offerings
November—Reports
December—Talk by Rev. D. A. McGregor, Ph.D., the new Executive Secretary of Religious Education for the National Council

The Department's major activities were:

1. Maintaining the services of Room 30
2. Miss Frazier's field work
3. The Normal School

The actual cost of running the Department in 1933 was as follows:

Salary of Field Worker	$1,354.40
Salary of Office Secretary	817.64
Commission on Teacher Training (paid by a legacy)	406.74
Postage	129.94
Office expenses	86.19
Promotion of special offerings	73.18
Total	$2,868.09

As one sees the wide range of the Department's activities accomplished with so small a budget one wonders how it was done.

The Commission on Adults was non-active, but Miss Frazier was able to forward some work in Parent Education through the Junior Woman's Auxiliary.

The Commission on Church Schools gave much time to study. One especially interesting piece of its research work on "Parents of Adolescents" was published in mimeographed form. This commission promoted the Lenten Offering, the Bishop's Bricks Fund, and the Christmas Box work. It planned and carried out several leaders' conferences.

The Commission on Students has increased its effectiveness with more parishes reporting their student lists. Letters of appreciation have been received from the college clergy on receipt of the lists. The rector of the American Church at Rome, Italy, wrote that although there were over 100 American students in Rome each year this was the first time he had received such a list.

Following the resignation of the Rev. A. F. McKenny as Episcopal Student Pastor in the Christian Association in November, the services for the University of Pennsylvania students were transferred from S. Andrew's Chapel to S. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village.

Active work with students is reported at Bryn Mawr College through the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; at Haverford through S. Mary's, Ardmore; at Swarthmore through Trinity, Swarthmore; and through West Chester with the colored students at Cheyney.

The Commission on Teacher Training was reorganized and it is to be congratulated for its excellent work. In the fall, with the coöperation of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the Altar Guild, it expanded the Normal School program to include training for the leaders of various organizations. There was enthusiastic response and an enrolment of 240 persons. It conducted the Sixty-third Annual Church School Institute in October, at which Dr. Adelaide Case led a conference for the clergy and also addressed the whole institute.

The Commission on Young People has been concerned only with the Young People's Fellowship. Their diocesan activities have been an Inspirational Day, a Banquet, a Convention, a Picnic, a Week-end Conference at Sellersville, a President's Dinner, a course at the Normal School, the promotion of the Thanksgiving Offering for the Episcopal Hospital, a Dance, and a Corporate Communion. The Spotlight, the Y. P. F. monthly paper, is of increasing interest and worth.

Need for Additional Trained Leadership. While much good work has been done, the Department firmly believes that the work of religious education in this great Diocese demands additional trained and highly qualified leadership. The present staff cannot begin to do much that needs to be done. For example, trained leadership is needed to keep abreast of modern movements in religious education, to study constantly the new materials and methods and to keep our supplies up to date, to interview those who visit Room 30 while the field worker is in the field, to lead discussion and speak at meetings, to study especially the possibilities for adult work in the Diocese, to study the problem of missionary education and also young people's work, to present clearly through The Church News and other written channels the new and best ideas in the various phases of religious education, to give time to the development of model schools, to meet the increasing demand for guidance in parent education, to develop sectional conferences in outlying sections of the Diocese, to visit the Church Schools. (If each of our 200 schools were visited only one Sunday each it would take our one field worker four years to reach them all.)

This gives a partial picture of what might be done with additional trained leadership and further backing from the Diocese.

RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry met at regular intervals during the year 1933, to confer on the making of grants of money from the Diocese to Postulants of this Diocese studying for the Ministry.

Two years ago it became necessary, by reason of a reduced budget in the Diocese, to refuse grants to new students, except to a number equal to those completing their course. A further reduction in the budget for this past year made it impossible to give grants to any additional students. The Commission greatly hopes that this will be the last year so stringent a rule must be observed. Effort has been made to enlist the aid of individuals in providing theological education for students for the Ministry, but without much success.

The policy of the Commission has been developed to make grants of financial aid only to Postulants of the Diocese who are doing Seminary work. Likewise, the student must maintain a fair standard of scholarship in order to have the grant continued. Friendly contact by members of the Commission with the students receiving grants has made possible a knowledge of the student personally and also his scholastic attainments.

During the past year the Commission made grants to twenty-five students for the Ministry in this Diocese. No student received over $200 for the year.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Two items of considerable importance transpired at the two meetings of the Convocation of Chester during the year 1933.

At the spring meeting held in Calvary Church, Rockdale, a new set of by-laws for the Convocation was adopted. The committee put a great deal of time and thought into this matter and presented us with a plan of operation for the Convocation that ought to help us for a long time to come.

The chief point of departure is an Executive Committee, to carry on the work of the Convocation during the year. This plan relieves the Dean of much of the responsibility and considerable of the work. In a Convocation such as ours, with fifty-four stations, twenty-four of them being missions, there are many problems to be faced during the year. An Executive Committee of six clergymen and six laymen is a very real help in trying to solve the problem.

The second item of interest that seemed to be a real step forward occurred at the fall meeting held at S. Asaph's, Bala. The Dean called on the clergy to state the amount they would assume as a self-apportionment for the mission cause for the year 1934. Such a plan enables the Finance and Budget Committees of the Diocese to know approximately the amount of money they can count on from the Convocation, in preparing the budget for the new year.

The Laymen's Committee of the Convocation held several meetings, and was most helpful in securing from the parishes the amount of money paid into the Diocese for the missionary cause.

A survey of the Convocation is being made by the Executive Committee. Many changes in the affairs of our missions are in prospect. Each of these changes, we believe, will work for the best interest of the mission concerned, as well as for the Convocation and Diocese as a whole.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The usual May and October all-day meetings were largely attended, the former being held at Trinity Church, Coatesville, and the latter at S. Mary's, Ardmore.

Bishop Campbell, of Liberia, and Mrs. E. P. Miller, Jr., of Wuchang, China, were the special speakers and gave stimulating accounts of the work being accomplished in their respective fields.

The work of the following organizations and committees was ably presented by Diocesan or Convocational representatives:

Domestic Committee of the Diocese
Woman's Unemployment Committee
Educational Work
Church Periodical Club
United Thank Offering
Work among the Isolated

Our financial effort during 1933 was concentrated on S. James's Mission, Prospect Park. To be able to contribute $2,000 towards their mortgage indebtedness was a real joy.

The Bishop of the Diocese and the Dean of the Convocation commended very highly the work of the Auxiliary, and encouraged the present plan of helping substantially a mission in the Convocation each year.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The year 1933 has been a year of strengthening stakes in the Convocation of Germantown. There has been some lengthening of cords, but most of our energy has been devoted to going deeper where we were already occupying. With this going deeper, has come a desire to revaluate what had already been undertaken. As a result, early in the year Convocation decided to appoint a strong committee to study each mission under its care, and after careful consideration of its findings, this Committee was to report back to Convocation with recommendations and suggestions and proposals of new policies. The Committee, duly appointed, went right to work. At this writing, it has secured sufficient data to determine the line of its studies and is busy making surveys and compiling reports. When the Committee finally brings in its findings, we expect to file the assembled material and report at diocesan headquarters for permanent record and for the guidance of those who in the future should have ready access to such information. The Committee on Appropriations has faithfully fulfilled its functions and is well posted with regard to the missions, their needs and their weaknesses. They are doing a difficult task well, i.e., guarding the diocesan finances against too great demands, and, on the other hand, granting appropriations as generous as is compatible with the needs of the various undertakings and the capabilities of the diocesan treasury. The meetings of Convocation have been well attended; its many committees are functioning conscientiously. The Dean has has courteous and happy coöperation on every side.

The Country Center Mission work continues as heretofore, its missionaries covering many miles going to and fro, holding services, ministering to the sick, caring for the well, and burying the dead. They have worship centers at Langhorne, Hulmeville, Buckingham, Wrightstown, New Hope, and Solebury. To the Country Center Mission work we have added the full-time service of a Deacon, the Rev. George Boyd, who is caring for Solebury and New Hope.

The work at Edgely is at this writing still being administered by the Priest from Fallsington, but new arrangements will soon be made and it is expected that under the new plan it will not be a charge on the Diocese. Dolington for a year has been under the care of the Rector at Newtown. He has relinquished it and it is now under the Dean and is being well cared for by Mr. William J. Ellis, of Newtown. A live committee is beginning to work under Mr. Ellis' leadership, and the whole plant is being brought up to date. Mr. Ellis serves without financial compensation.

The work at Somerton has been put back into the care of the Rector of Bustleton, where it originally was and is thriving under the arrangement. This change relieved the Priest at Oxford Circle of work outside the parish and the Convocation has generously entered into a five-year plan with this parish, whereby the Church of the Messiah secures the full-time services of its clergyman and, in turn, yearly assumes more and more of its own expenses until at the end of the five years it hopes to sustain itself. This is a new Convocational policy and we view with much interest its working out.

S. Gabriel's, Feltonville, marches on. Its Rector and people together are developing a very worthwhile work in a changing neighborhood. The success of S. Gabriel's illustrates the value of continuing the services of an acceptable man for a long time in the same mission. Too often one hears the complaint, "As soon as we secure a good man and get used to him, he is called away and goes elsewhere and we get discouraged." S. Gabriel's has not been put in this strait.

Towards the end of 1933 the priest in charge of the Mission of the Incarnation, Morrisville, resigned because of failing health. He had been there many years and had endeared himself to many. Not long after his resignation God called him home. We miss him much. Bishop Taitt has appointed the Rev. Oliver E. Newton, formerly of Clifton Heights, to care for Morrisville, and he is now in residence. We welcome him to our Convocational family.

S. Andrew's, Yardley, suffered financial loss by the closing of a local bank. The Diocese came to its aid, lending them a small sum of money to pay the mission's proportion of the priest's salary. This action was necessary because our Bishop ruled early in the year that when a mission does not fulfil its promise to pay a certain proportion of its clergyman's salary, then the Diocese will not pay its share, unless a special emergency has arisen to justify the mission's dereliction. The salary of the clergyman must come first—before the expenses of heating, lighting, or anything else. Yardley is conscious of its obligations to the community and is planning for an increased use of the Parish House during the added leisure hours expected because of the changes in our national economic life.

During the year some of our smaller parishes for the first time have had to seek help from the Diocesan Sustentation Fund; others have had to request larger grants. The Dean believes that this fund has been of inestimable help in this Convocation. However, the new requests and requests for larger grants may indicate the necessity for amalgamations and consolidations. This problem is being given careful consideration.

Emmanuel, Quakertown, is carrying on. Its faithful and well-loved priest walks many miles carrying the church's ministrations to widely scattered families. He is known over the countryside and loved.

The work at West Oak Lane flourishes. Early in 1934 it applied for official recognition as an official mission of the Diocese and its request was granted. The petition required by Canon was signed by one hundred adults; it promised $700 during 1934 toward the stipend of its priest. The new building is adequate and comfortable. Attendance grows.

During 1933 two enterprises in the Convocation received aid from the Church Extension Fund. One Call made it possible to move the building from Southampton to West Oak Lane and to put it into usable condition. The other appeal was used toward rebuilding S. Barnabas Church, Germantown.

The quota for the Convocation for 1933 was $88,982.90, payments on the quota totaled $86,635.83. In addition, $32,047.24 was given in the Diocesan Contributors' Fund (including the Whitsunday Offering), and $11,833.40 for specials, making a grand total of $130,516.47.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation has met regularly. They have been deeply interested in the work of Convocation and have inspired both missionaries and Dean by their presence and work. Their report follows.

With gratitude to God for all He is doing by us and with us, I am, faithfully,

Yours in Christ,
CHARLES EDWARD EDER

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The outstanding event of the year in the Convocation was the completion of the Parish House for S. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove, made possible in a year of great financial difficulties by the gifts from the Church Extension Fund, supplemented by the work of a special committee of which the Rev. N. B. Groton was chairman, and the splendid and generous response of the people of the Mission, under the leadership of their Missionary, the Rev. George C. Anderson. While the gifts and pledges of the latter amounted to one half of the total, they were further materially helped by the sponsorship of S. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh, which Parish endorsed the Mission's note for $4,500 to be repaid as pledges are redeemed. Without this aid to the financing of the necessary loan, it would have been impossible to proceed with the building at a time when building costs were very low. A beautiful and adequate building was erected at a total cost of $17,000. The first services were held on Christmas Day, and the building is already proving to be an inestimable help in this rapidly developing field.

Three of our Missions, in spite of great difficulty in financing their work, paid their quotas for Missions in full: Advent, Hatboro; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; and S. Anne's, Willow Grove, totaling over $900.

The number of Confirmations, 62 in all, is one of our best records in many years.

The Parishes and Missions of the Convocation gave $25,115. to the general missionary work of the Church. While this figure falls considerably short of our total quota, we are steadily stressing the great importance of reaching that much-to-be-desired goal, thereby taking our place in the ranks of those Convocations which carry their full share of responsibility for the world-wide Mission of the Church, both within and without the Diocese. Four Parishes and three Missions were on the honor roll for 1933, just a bit less than one third.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

By reason of the resignation of the Rev. Norman Van Pelt Levis, who for twelve years carried the responsibility of the office of Dean of the Convocation of North Philadelphia, I was elected and installed as his successor in October, 1933. This report, therefore, must chiefly be a statement of the first reactions of the new Dean to the situation affecting the Missions of the Convocation.

Including the Foreign Work and Mission to the Deaf there are twelve Missions at work in the Convocation. We have also a colored worker ordained as a Deacon, the product of S. Augustine's, all ready for service in the Convocation if and when we can provide him with the opportunity.

It is not my purpose to refer to each Mission and Missionary in this brief report. My impression is that each one is giving of his utmost and is worthy of every encouragement which the Convocation and the Diocese can possibly provide.

It has been a great joy to see how the Polish congregation has supported their Missionary in rehabilitating the old Church of the Advent and adapting it to their present needs. It would well repay a visit. It represents much zeal on the part of the Missionary with much encouragement and support on the part of the people.

S. John's House is facing a complete secession of activities or reorganization. Despite discouraging circumstances, we are making every effort to arouse new interest in this lovely piece of Church work in the midst of a foreign community.

The Convocation has sympathized most deeply with the members of S. Matthew's Parish and the family of the late Edward H. Bonsall; also with the Rev. Arnold H. Hord in the death of his son. It has learned with regret of the serious illness of the Rev. Alfred Overton Tarrant, Rector of Emmanuel Church.

The Missionary of S. Ambrose's has been entitled to an increase in the minimum stipend due him for the past eight months and we feel great chagrin that this canonical provision has not been carried out for his benefit hitherto.

The Woman's Aid has given most earnest encouragement in support of the Dean and on behalf of small items of great need in several of the Missions. They have particularly sought to encourage S. Augustine's Mission for the present year and will place a new roof on the buildings, and have forwarded a petition to the Bishop to have the proceeds of one of the Church Extension Calls applied to a parish house fund for S. Augustine's.

Attendance at the meetings of the Convocation has been enthusiastic and representative. S. Clement's Church in October and Christ Church, Franklinville, in January, provided most hospitable arrangements. The May meeting has been invited to the Incarnation.

In order that it may secure greater self-support by attracting larger numbers to church services which already overcrowd the small room used as a Chapel, S. Christopher's needs new quarters. The work amongst the colored in the Convocation all along the line seems ready for expansion if there can be greater assurance of backing from the Convocation and the Diocese in providing more suitable quarters and facilities. We are confident that greater self-support will come with better equipment on the one hand and better economic conditions on the other.

The Church Foundation has leased the corner property adjacent to the Parish House of S. Bartholomew's, which is also used for the present as a house of worship, to a gas company on a ten-year lease, and it is hoped that this income will ultimately accrue to the benefit of S. Bartholomew's as well as to the appropriation made by the Diocese to the Convocation.

The old S. Barnabas Church, having been condemned by the city authorities, has been demolished and the vacant lot offered to a playground society in the hope that it may in some measure be of benefit to the neighborhood.

A committee has been appointed to consider the possible extension of colored work in the Convocation; and another committee is being formed to coöperate with the Bishop and the General Committee of the Diocese in relation to the observance of the 150th anniversary of the Diocese and the assembling of the General Convention this year.

To all who are seeking to give coöperation and sympathetic support to the Missions of the Convocation, to those in the various parishes of the Convocation who are upholding the hands of their rectors and to do their utmost to enable the Church in the Diocese and throughout the world to carry on the work of Christ through the Church, sincere recognition is accorded, and abiding appreciation and acknowledgment.

The reports of the Missions and the Treasurer's report of the Convocation and of the Treasurer of the Woman's Aid are appended herewith.

Plans are under way once again under the leadership of Mrs. Winfield C. Scott, President of the Woman's Aid, for a lawn fete to be held at "Wyck," at the kind invitation of Mr. Caspar Wister Haines and his sister, Miss Haines. The proceeds of this affair are indispensable as a means to carry on a large part of the work of the Missions.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Parishes, Chapels, and Missions of South Philadelphia, in spite of adverse conditions, have held their own the past year. We have had a number of changes in the personnel of our clergy; the Rev. Howard R. Weir has become Rector of Holy Trinity Church; the Rev. Thomas L. Harris, Minister-in-Charge of S. Luke and the Epiphany; the Rev. William H. Pickford, Vicar of the Chapel of the Prince of Peace, and the Rev. John Roak, Rector of Gloria Dei. We welcome these Clergy to the Diocese and the Convocation of South Philadelphia, and feel sure with their help our work will prosper.

As we look over the finances—always a matter of importance—we notice that the total givings of the Parishes and Missions in South Philadelphia for the work of the Church was $58,207.62. Our quota was $79,806.29; our expectations were $40,776.82, but we actually paid $45,987.72. In this year of depression we feel that this is a commendable showing, let us hope that we do as well in 1934.

This field becomes more and more difficult each year; the population continues to change; more of the colored race and Italians move into this section.

The congregations of L'Emmannuello and S. Elizabeth's show a steady increase. They report larger congregations and more children in the Church School. The real problem is one of finance. As most of these people are poor and able to give about 25 per cent of the overhead expense it becomes a real problem to secure the balance.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit (colored) has had a fair year. The work has been in charge of a Divinity School student, who did commendable work with the children. With the beginning of the new year a colored priest, the Rev. Mr. Moore, will be in charge of the work. Under his supervision we will have a celebration of the Holy Communion monthly, and a regular evening service each Sunday.

The Mission of the Transfiguration continues to minister to the spiritual and the material needs of the people in the Mission. The Rev. Mr. McHenry, Minister-in-Charge, informs me that nearly every person connected with the Mission is out of work and the receipts, consequently, are very small.

The Woman's Aid, under the presidency of Mrs. Frederic Fox, has done a commendable work. The Needlework Guild was organized as a section of the South Philadelphia Committee. Ten churches are interested, and contributed 544 garments and $38.75 in cash. A rally was held in behalf of the work in the Church of the Holy Apostles on February 8, and as a result new branches will be formed among the other churches of South Philadelphia.

Under the leadership of the Women's Auxiliary, the Devotional Day of Prayer, November 11, was held in twelve different churches.

The Elizabeth Price Martin League always receives willing support from our women. Literature and other seasonable greetings are sent to many of the isolated from the 140 members interested in the work. We are grateful to the women for this very excellent piece of missionary work.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

Our missionary work has been carried on in the past year with steadily increasing effectiveness; this in spite of the difficulties growing out of general economic conditions.

Our Missionaries have performed their duties faithfully and well and continue to deserve our generous support, moral and financial.

The work of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation under the leadership of its President, Mrs. C. Frank Miller, has been of great value to the Missions. Every Mission has received substantial assistance during the year from Mrs. Miller and her fellow-members. It is a pleasure to record our appreciation of the very encouraging advance made in the work of the Woman's Aid. It is steadily becoming a more important factor in the life of the Convocation.

The Convocation has taken steps during the year to revise its By-Laws so that they may conform to changes in the Diocesan Canons. Another step of importance was the appointment of an Evaluation Committee to consider the present status of our Convocation work and to suggest plans looking to improvement.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Church Foundation

At the Annual Meeting of the Members, held May 10th, 1933, the following gentlemen were elected to the Board to serve for the ensuing three years:

REV. J. M. COLLINS — MR. R. S. MORRIS
REV. D. W. GATESON — MR. F. H. MOSS
MR. P. S. WILLIAMS

and for the term ending 1935—MR. L. B. RUNK

At a Special Meeting of the Board held June 14th, 1933, it was upon Motion Resolved that the Chancellor of the Diocese be authorized and directed to withdraw from the Receivers of the Philadelphia Company for Guaranteeing Mortgages all the individual bonds and mortgages belonging to the several accounts of the Church Foundation, the principal and interest of which is guaranteed by said Mortgage Company.

At a Special Meeting held February 28th, 1934, it was Resolved that overdrafts should be definitely discontinued wherever possible in all the Trusts and reduction made in the payment of Income to the Beneficiary sufficient to make up the present overdraft within a reasonable period.

In the case of the Nevil Memorial Church of St. George, the Officers of The Foundation were authorized to borrow upon the securities belonging to said Trust and annual payment of Income reduced in order that the Loan may be liquidated as shortly as possible.

At a Meeting held April 11th, 1934, accepted Trust of the property of St. Faith, Brookline.

Accepted Trust of the property of Epiphany, Royersford, provided the Mission will agree to have the Title transferred to The Church Foundation.

In the matter of the Church School of All Saints Church, Torresdale, as the School would have to be closed at once if its present income was applied to reduce the present overdraft, it was Resolved to pay over the income from the Trust for the balance of the current school year, postponing until the expiration of the school term the holding back the income to pay off the overdraft.

In the matter of the property at Gulph Mills, it was agreed to exchange a tract of land twenty-five feet in width upon the southwesterly side of Trinity Mission for a tract of similar width upon the northwesterly side.

During the year, the Church of the Transfiguration and the Church of S. Barnabas, Kensington, having been condemned by the City, were ordered to be torn down.

A plan has been worked out by which an option has been granted to the Church of the Holy Apostles under which it will take over St. Giles, Stonehurst, pay or secure all its debts, provided a two years' trial period beginning September 1st, 1934, proved satisfactory.

APPENDIX I

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The year 1933 saw the actual physical structure of the first unit of the Cathedral Church of Christ under course of construction on the Cathedral site in Upper Roxborough, Philadelphia. It was possible for practically half of the Chapel of St. Mary, the memorial of Mrs. Anne M. V. Watson, to be built. Though only a portion of the whole unit, and with certain eliminations in construction and ornamentation, the part of the Chapel of St. Mary now in use gives a helpful and encouraging idea of the wonderful possibilities of the Cathedral to be erected. On the afternoon of Friday, December 8, 1933, the first Service of Worship, that of Evening Prayer, was conducted in this new Church building and this service is maintained weekly on Saturday afternoons at 4.00 P. M.

It is peculiarly fitting, that during the year which commemorates the Sesquicentennial of the corporate life of our Church in this country as an organic unit in the Anglican Communion, so closely associated by leading figures and events in its beginnings to the City of Philadelphia and the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Services of Worship should be begun in this first unit of the Cathedral Church of the Diocese. As magnificent Churches and Cathedrals all over the world bear witness and mark the places where Christianity gave life and progress to the spiritual development of mankind within the Kingdom of God, just so Philadelphia is preeminently the city in this country to be so distinguished by a great and glorious House of God. The Cathedral Church of Christ offers to the people of this Diocese an opportunity to worthily express in forms of bequests and gifts and memorials that love for God and His Kingdom that has ever found through the Christian ages an outlet in the erection of a magnificent temple of worship.

Mr. John J. Collier, who had been Treasurer of the Chapter since the Cathedral Charter was granted, died November 24, 1932. The Chapter regrets to report that through the acts of his successor they suffered a loss of $55,352.47 in the period from December, 1932, to June 1933. With the approval of counsel, $5,000 of this amount has been refunded in cash by friends of the successor Treasurer and notes have been taken for the balance, including the guarantee of $5,000 of these notes by a substantial person, if he is living when they fall due. The builder of St. Mary's Chapel has been paid in full for his contract, which had been contracted for in the early part of 1932; but in order to raise the money for this it was necessary to place a mortgage of $15,000 on St. Mary's Church, Broad and South Streets, which property is owned by the Chapter.

Under the will of the late Henry W. Watson, St. Mary's Chapel of the Cathedral is ultimately entitled to all the income from his residuary estate after the death of some life tenants; and it is believed that this estate will be quite substantial. Ten thousand dollars was bequeathed for a memorial altar for the Chapel of St. Mary. A striking oil painting, "the Back of the Cross," has been given the Cathedral by Celeste Heckscher Troth. Soon a Cathedral League will be developed and the aid and interest of friends of the Cathedral will be sought in that organization.

The Budget for 1934

RESOLUTION OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF 1933 WHICH WAS ADOPTED

"Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1935 on the basis of the Budget for 1934, as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as may be necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn and the expected income for 1935."

Pursuant to the above resolution of the Diocesan Convention, the Executive Council in October adopted tentatively a budget of $402,878.46 made up of two items: Our quota for the work of the National Council, $236,500.00, and for the Diocesan Work, $166,378.46.

This total budget was then apportioned in quotas to our parishes and missions. The returns in expectations for 1934 were so very far below the amount of this budget that the Executive Council at its January meeting approved the recommendations of the Budget Committee by cutting the tentative budget to $300,000.00, $150,000.000 for the work of the National Council and $150,000.00 for the work of the Diocese.

The detailed budget is submitted herewith.

NOTE: The Diocese has for several years been carrying an overdraft at the beginning of each year, due in part to loans it has made which will not be repaid.

On account of unusual business conditions in 1933 there was a Diocesan Deficit at the close of the year of $13,661.69, which added to the existing overdraft from previous years of $14,967.37 makes a total overdraft of $28,629.06 which we carried over into the year 1934.

The Executive Council desires to amortize this debt to the bank within three years and will apply the Whitsunday Offering this year toward the reduction of the overdraft.

Further contributions toward the Diocesan Deficit will be greatly appreciated but will not count on the Quota.

APPENDIX K

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions, 1934

We report with regret the death this winter of Mr. Nathan H. Davis. Mr. Davis has been a member of the Commission since the inception of this whole movement, and until ill health in recent years limited his activities, he worked with interest and helpfulness.

It is a matter of congratulation to the Church that our Church Pension Fund in these difficult financial times is in excellent condition, and has been able to meet all its pledges and promises, and even to continue paying beyond its promises. Our clergy as they retire are receiving a minimum of $1,000, which is $400 in excess of the pledges, and the widows of clergymen dying in active service are still receiving the extra grant of a thousand dollars outright. The Church has reason to be proud of this accomplishment and the clergy and their families to be grateful.

It has been a difficult year for us in the Diocese as our Revolving Fund has been practically exhausted by the heavy demands in these difficult years, but we are hopeful that things will soon be better and are grateful that so far no one has suffered in any pension rights, but we must build up again what we call our Revolving Fund, which enables us at the beginning of each year to protect the clergy as a whole. At the present time there are the following beneficiaries of the Pension Fund in this Diocese:

26 clergymen	$25,205.33	Annually
56 widows	20,682.78	"
18 orphans	2,425.66	"
Total 100	receiving $48,313.77

We are helping this year from the Sustentation Fund, 21 Rectors of parishes. One of these is receiving $900, four are receiving $700, four are receiving $600, one is receiving $450, two $400, seven $300, one $180, and one $100.

The Convention authorized us last year to assess the parishes in a sum not to exceed $15,000. As usual, we did not assess as much as we were authorized to, but we were obliged to assess the parishes in the sum of $13,500.

It ought to be made quite clear that while this is a sum larger than usual, it is a matter of providing the living of the clergy. Especially in our industrial districts the smaller parishes have been so hard hit that without the assistance from the Sustentation Fund, the Rectors of those parishes would have been in "evil case indeed." We are all familiar with the fact that in difficult times we are obliged to give more to provide the bare living necessities of people than at any other time and the one instance in which an increase is justified is that which provides the bare living of the clergy. The Commission believes that it has not only obeyed the explicit directions of the Canon, but has correctly interpreted the will of the Diocese, that even in these difficult times the clergy should receive at least a minimum living. Another feature which has somewhat increased our assessments is the necessity of protecting the pension rights of all the clergy of the Diocese by seeing that the Diocese was in good standing with the Pension Fund. We have always to remember that our pension system is of the nature of a group insurance and that failure in any particular case jeopardizes the pensions of the whole group. This, for many of the clergy, is the only insurance they have, and to jeopardize it is almost criminal and is surely not the will of the Convention, so that we have no compunction in asking the parishes to meet this burden as a proper first charge against the funds of the Church.

The Commission has not felt that the time for a general revision of the whole scale of salaries has so far come, though in the near future more stable conditions may warrant a fresh study of the whole situation; but certainly the last few years have not been years in which one could arrive at any fair conclusion as to what the scales of salary should be, and it did not seem to us necessary or wise to recommend to the Convention any lessening of the scale at the present time.

We have two suggestions in the way of modification to make, however, at this time, and resolutions covering them are appended to this Report. First, it has seemed to us that where a clergyman receives $500 or more on his salary from the Diocese, he ought to be willing to give part of his time to any missionary work to which the Bishop may assign him. In some cases the Bishop could use such a man, in some cases he could not, but it ought to be possible for him to avail himself of such service where he can use it. We, therefore, offer a resolution covering that point.

Second. Early in the history of the movement the Commission suggested, and the Convention passed, a Standing Resolution by which any parish not able to pay at least $1,200 towards the Rector's stipend, might be asked to take the status of a mission. At that time the standard salary was $2,000 a year. Since then the standard has been raised to $2,100, and we are offering as a substitute for that old Standing Resolution a new Standing Resolution by which the Commission shall be instructed to withdraw or decline any grant to the Rector's salary where the parish will not pay at least $1,200, and may do so unless the parish is able to pay at least $1,300.

Some of the Rectors who were helped in 1933 are receiving less in 1934 and their parishes have been asked to assume more. After this year we have no doubt that more in that line can be accomplished and the number reduced year by year until we get back at least to the position of 1929 when there were only 14 Rectors being helped from the Sustentation Fund. But, in the meantime, in order to meet the canonical demands for salaries, and to protect the pension rights of the whole body of the clergy, we must ask the Convention to authorize us to assess the parishes for 1935 in a sum not exceeding $15,000. We do not think that much will be required, and we will, of course, make the assessment as low as possible.

At the proper time in this Convention the Commission will present for consideration a proposed Amendment to the Canon creating the Commission which, if adopted, will authorize the Executive Council to elect annually three members of the Commission to serve with those elected by the Convention. This, we believe, would give opportunity for that mutual knowledge and understanding that make for helpful co-operation.

We offer the following Resolutions:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars for the purposes of the Sustentation Fund for the year 1935.

Standing Resolution:

RESOLVED, That when more than $500 annually is required from the Sustentation Fund to enable a Parish to pay its Rector the minimum salary the Commission shall not make any appropriation until its Rector and Vestry shall have filed with the Bishop their agreement that the Bishop may call upon the Rector to devote a portion of his time to Missionary work outside of the Parish under the direction of the Bishop.

Standing Resolution:

RESOLVED, That if a Parish does not contribute at least $1,300 annually towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may, and, if it does not contribute at least $1,200 the Commission shall withdraw or decline to make any appropriation to augment the Rector's salary, and shall recommend to the Bishop, the Rector and Vestry that the Parish make application to come under the Missionary Administration, as provided for in Canon VIII, Section V.

Respectfully submitted,

Chairman

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

Several years ago, the registers of the Church of the Advent, Philadelphia, with the exception of two volumes, were turned over to the Registrar and by him deposited in the fireproof vault. There seemed little probability at that time that the missing books would be recovered, but recently, while repairs were being made on the church building, the lost registers were found in the cellar by the Reverend Edward M. Baczewiski, missionary in charge. He gave the books to Archdeacon Bullitt. We are glad to have the books to complete the set of registers of this parish.

The State Library of Pennsylvania, under authority of the Civil Works Administration, is making a catalogue of all historical manuscripts in the State. Mr. Guy S. Klett, representing the State Library, has just finished making a list of historical documents, including parish registers, in this office.

The following gifts have been received: The contents of the cornerstone of the Church of the Transfiguration, West Philadelphia, which includes a number of interesting articles, among them a signed photograph of the President of the United States then, Rutherford B. Hayes; the contents of the cornerstone of St. Barnabas Church, Kensington; the marriage certificate of James Cox, April 20th, 1831, one of the founders and Rector's Warden of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, who died in 1862, presented by his granddaughter, Mrs. William Halsey Wood.

Eight volumes of the records of old St. Paul's Church are now being copied, by photostat, at the Pennsylvania Historical Society, by the Bishop's permission.

Genealogical searches have been made for people in various parts of the United States and the usual routine work of the office has been carried on as in former years.

Report of the Commission on Evangelism

Two activities have been carried on under the auspices of the Commission on Evangelism during the year. A course on Personal Evangelism was given in the Diocesan Normal School, led by Mrs. L. C. Palmer, the wife of a member of the Commission. Due to the courtesy of the Rev. Mr. Weir, and with the help of the Rev. Mr. Huggins, Mr. Kinder, and others of the staff, a Preaching Mission was held in the Church of the Holy Trinity on Thursday evenings during Lent. The Commission feels that in spite of the weather, which was the worst in many years, the Preaching Mission was highly effective, and plans are being made to hold a similar series of services next year.

There were many evangelistic activities in the Diocese which were not held under the auspices of the Commission. Besides the activities of the Church Army, the Brotherhood of S. Andrew, and other societies interested in evangelism, and of the Oxford Groups, missions were held in a number of parishes.

The Commission feels that it is desirable opportunity should be offered within the Diocese for both clergy and laity to retire from the daily activities for a short time, and under proper spiritual guidance devote their thoughts to religion. It is hoped that some such opportunity may soon be provided.

APPENDIX O

The Report of the Committee on Problem of City Churches

MAJORITY REPORT

In the last Convention it was "RESOLVED, that the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee of Seven Presbyters and Seven Laymen to consider the whole Parochial System of the Diocese, the special problems of City Churches in modern life, and the relation of Parochial Endowments to the work of the Church, said Committee to report to the next Convention, circulating its printed report at least thirty days prior thereto."

The Committee reports that after a survey of the field, in which it was greatly assisted by a learned paper by Mr. Hawkes on the parochial system in Pennsylvania, it reached the conclusion that it was the course of wisdom to confine its attention to Diocesan Canons and methods of administration. The laws of the General Convention relating to Parishes present no difficulties and are manifestly beyond modification by a Diocesan Convention. The laws of the State of Pennsylvania are even further beyond our power. We could not with propriety even agitate for their change without consulting the four sister-dioceses in Pennsylvania, and even if all five of our dioceses should agree to ask for legislation in favor of our Church it is highly improbable that it could be obtained since the constitution of the State expressly forbids special legislation. It would, therefore, be necessary to consult with other Churches and religious organizations if there was to be the slightest possibility of success in changing the State's laws on endowments for religious purposes. Under such conditions it is in our judgment inexpedient to open up the question of the endowments held by Vestries, under the law of the State and subject to the jurisdiction of the State's Courts. Such agitation may, indeed, discourage future endowments.

We shall not, therefore, enter upon any discussion of the endowments or problems of the mid-city churches. They have neither invited nor do they welcome our interference. Christ Church, St. Peter's, St. Stephen's, St. Luke and Epiphany, St. Mark's, Holy Trinity, St. James's, St. Clement's and Holy Apostles contributed last year to the Episcopal Fund $5,229.58; to the Convention Fund $3,994.67; to the Sustentation Fund $2,428.53—a total of $11,662.78, one-fourth of the Canonical Funds assessed; and to the cause of Missions $70,689.58. Undoubtedly they were able to give these amounts by reason of the fact that their endowments relieved them to a considerable extent of their parochial expenses.

Turning to the consideration of the parochial system of the diocese as a whole, we appreciate that a special problem is presented by the changes in population in consequence of the improved methods of transportation and of the flight of the population to the suburbs. The solution, we are convinced, will be found not in new legislation but in a new spirit of administration. The Canons give to the Bishop all the authority needed; while he must consult the Standing Committee and give opportunity to all parties to present their views and interests, he has the power to grant a new location to parishes seeking new fields and to open up new missions. We suggest no new legislation. What we do suggest is that the shifting nature of our population be taken to heart in our diocesan and parochial administration; that it be frankly realized that the Churches in growing sections must be prepared to see other parishes come in and share in the growing opportunities and responsibilities. Churches whose people are migrating should seriously plan either to migrate with them and so preserve valuable loyalties or to readjust their work to new conditions. We must not allow attachment to the past, or satisfaction with present conditions, to close our eyes to the responsibility, unitedly in the Diocese and severally in our Parishes, to prepare the way for our Church's future usefulness and growth.

One way in which the Diocese could facilitate such readjustments would be to lift from the shoulders of the Parishes the weight of the Episcopal and Convention Funds. These expenses are, of course, absolutely necessary. Many of us think that they ought to be increased and that this Diocese should be in a financial position to support more than one bishop. It would undoubtedly be a great help if the attention of our people of wealth could be drawn to the need of a great enlargement of the Diocese's endowment. The funds are at present raised by a method that has this peculiar hardship that the Convention uses a stern method with the parishes, which the Parish cannot itself apply to its members. A tax with an annexed penalty is laid on the parishes, yet the Vestry of the Parish is not able to tax the members of the Parish, and often has very little discretion in the expenditure of the income of the endowments. If this tax could be done away and these necessary diocesan expenses be paid out of the income of an endowment, it is probable that the voluntary gifts would be increased by much more than the amount of the tax. It should be borne in mind that this tax bears with special heaviness on a Parish seeking by costly experiment in various directions to adapt itself to new conditions. It inflicts a penalty upon liberal experimentation and thus works against the flexibility that is now so particularly needed. Certainly an increase of the Diocesan Endowment is one of our most outstanding and immediate needs.

It is along the same line of lightening the burden of taxation that we suggest that Parishes should not be carried indefinitely on the roll of the Sustentation Fund, but should be required in time either to consolidate with other Parishes, or to migrate, or abandoning their privileged position to become aided Parishes under Diocesan control.

These suggestions manifestly concern policies of administration and do not require any legislation. While the committee has no legislation to propose, it hopes that the Convention will by the acceptance of this report give its endorsement to the views herein expressed.

It submits as an appendix to this report for printing in the JOURNAL, a brief extract from the law of the State on Religious Endowments, which it may be useful to have thus made readily accessible.

MINORITY REPORT

We find ourselves unable to content ourselves with signing the Report of the Majority of the Committee on the problem of City Churches, less because of what is in it than because of what is not in it.

At the very start of its deliberations, the Committee ruled out of consideration the peculiar problems of mid-city parishes prevailing not only in our own Diocese but all over the country. It was these problems that constituted one of the main reasons for proposing this Committee, and one of the specific phases of our modern life which it was requested to study.

We believe that the whole Church is faced with the issue today, and the future can only increase the urgency for its solution. We covet for our Diocese the leadership in indicating how it can better function in the cause of religion and the service of our great metropolitan centers. Whether we take the lead, or content ourselves with the status quo, we are convinced that the problem must be faced, not only by our Communion, but by the whole Christian Church. Insofar as the Report of the Committee seems to shelve this issue, we are obliged to dissent.

We do not share the apparently hopeless opinion as to the possibility of ultimately securing for Pennsylvania a revision of its Civil Law, comparable with the existing law in the State of New York. The legislative aspects, after all, are but of secondary import.

The matter of property control, personal and real, is only one item in the question of the Parochial System, and by no means the most important one. It certainly was not in the minds of those who prepared the Resolution, under which the Committee was appointed, to deprive any Parish of the management of its property. The purpose was not control, but co-operation in solving a grave issue of common concern.

The most self-centered Congregation may advisedly welcome unified action when taxation reaches out to ecclesiastical holdings.

With one hundred and fifty years' experience, the Diocese has had failure and successes, which need to be so considered and set forth as to point the way to improved procedure. We should familiarize our membership with such studies as that put forth under the auspices of Yale University.

In a number of the seaboard cities, it is common knowledge that our Church has an enviable record for downtown anchorage and serviceableness, through generations of change and chance. In no other city, perhaps, is this capacity for adaptability more marked than here, with our three oldest centers.

But, to the north and south of these, there have been disastrous blunders; and to the west, and across the Schuylkill, there are serious complications at present crying out for a co-ordinated policy. And, while the Parochial officials immediately involved have not intruded upon our Committee, some have graciously met with the undersigned; their accumulated information and deductions are of vital significance. These should be shared with us all, as soon as practicable.

The times call with increasing insistence in every country for the Christian Church to make a clearer manifestation of its determination and ability not to seek its own, but to sacrificially serve. Furthermore, we do not feel that the suggestions submitted by the Committee fall within the scope of the task assigned to it. Those suggestions are—that the Bishop and Standing Committee should modernize their views in exercising their authority in the matter of sites for new churches and that the endowment of the Episcopate should be increased, with modification in the handling of the Sustentation Fund.

Interpreting your instructions on broader and more constructive lines, we, accordingly, offer the following:

RESOLVED, That the Majority and Minority Reports be received and ordered printed in the Convention Journal; and

That the Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

GILBERT E. PEMBER,
LOUIS C. WASHBURN.

"NON-PROFIT CORPORATION LAW"

Approved May 5th, 1933
(P. L. 1933, page 289)

ARTICLE III
CORPORATE POWERS, DUTIES AND SAFEGUARDS

Section 306, Authority to Take and Hold Trust Property; Investments.—Subject to any limitations or restrictions contained in its articles, every non-profit corporation formed for religious, educational, scientific, or charitable purposes, may, without limitations as to value, take, receive and hold such real and personal property, including the principal or interest of any money or other fund, as may be given, granted, conveyed, bequeathed, devised to, or otherwise vested in, such corporation in trust for the purpose or purposes set forth in its articles. Such real and personal property shall be faithfully and specifically used for or applied to the purpose or purposes for which it was given in trust to the corporation. The directors of the corporation shall, as trustees of such property, be held to the same degree of responsibility and accountability as if not incorporated, unless a less degree or a particular degree of responsibility and accountability is prescribed in the trust instrument, or unless the directors remain under the control of the members of the corporation who retain the right to direct, and do direct, the actions of the directors as to the use of the trust property from time to time. If the trust instrument by which the donor, grantor, or testator gave such property to the corporation in trust shall direct that only the income of the property shall be used for the accomplishment of the particular religious, educational, scientific, or charitable purpose, the directors of the corporation may, unless otherwise specifically directed in the trust instrument, invest the property in investments which are designated as legal investments for trust funds under the laws of this Commonwealth, and such investments are hereby declared to be legal investments of such trust funds by the directors. The directors of the corporation shall keep accurate accounts of all trust funds, separate and apart from the other funds of the corporation, and shall, unless the terms of the particular trust instrument provide otherwise, make an annual report, signed by the treasurer, to the members of the corporation concerning the trust funds held under this section and the use made of such funds and of the income thereof.

APPENDIX P

Proposed Amendments to the Canons As Reported by the Committee on Canons

I

Proposed by the Executive Council; submitted without recommendation.

A. Amend Canon VII, Sec. VI, by repealing Sub-section 2, and substituting therefor:

2. For the purpose of augmenting to the minima, as established above, the salaries of Rectors whose Parishes are unable to pay those amounts, and for making such payments of Pension Fund Premiums as may be necessary to prevent in the Diocese the existence of such arrearages in Pension Premiums as might impair the rights of the Clergy and their widows and children under the Church Pension system, there shall be established and maintained by annual apportionment among the Parishes in union with the Convention a fund to be called "The Sustentation Fund."

B. Repeal Sub-section 3, and substitute therefor the following:

3. Expenditures out of this fund for the purpose of augmenting salaries of Rectors and for covering the Pension Premiums on such payments shall be directed by the Executive Council, and expenditures to prevent the Pension Premium arrearages above described shall be directed by the Commission on Pensions of this Diocese.

4. The amount to be apportioned among the Parishes each year for the maintenance of the Sustentation Fund shall be determined as follows: Two months prior to each Annual Convention the Commission on Pensions shall send to the Executive Council its estimate of the amount that will be needed during the next calendar year for the purpose of preventing the Pension Premium arrearages described above, and the Council in like manner shall estimate the amount that will be needed during the same period to augment the salaries of Rectors as above provided, and to cover the Pension Premiums on such payments, and the Council shall recommend to the Convention as the amount to be apportioned for the Sustentation Fund the sum of the estimates of the Commission and of the Council for their several responsibilities, and such total, or a greater or less amount, whichever may be approved by the Convention, shall be apportioned among the Parishes in the same manner as is prescribed for the Convention Fund.

C. In Sub-sections 5, 6 and 7 change the word "Commission" to "Executive Council." Add new Sub-section 8, as follows:

8. The Treasurer shall, upon direction of the Commission on Pensions, make payment of Pension Premiums for the prevention of the arrearages described above.

D. In Canon VII, Sec. VII, Sub-section 2, strike out the words "Clerical Salaries and." Add new paragraph (f):

(f) To direct the payment of such Pension Premium out of the Sustentation Fund as may be necessary to prevent the existence in the Diocese of such arrearages in Pension Premiums as might prevent the Clergy, their widows or children, from receiving the benefits they should receive from the Church Pension Fund.

E. In Canon IV, Sec. IV, Sub-section 4, in place of the words "Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions," and of the word "Commission" insert "Executive Council" in both places.

F. In Standing Resolutions referring to Clerical Salaries change the word "Commission" to "Executive Council."

G. In Canon VI, Sec. II, Sub-section 2, add to the list of Departments therein "The Department of Clerical Salaries."

II

Proposed by the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions; submitted without recommendation.

Amend Canon IV, Sec. V, Sub-section 1, by eliminating therefrom all that follows the words, "for three years," and substituting therefor the following:

"and of three members, Clerical or Lay, elected by the Executive Council for one year. The Commission shall have power to fill vacancies among the members elected by the Convention, and the Council may fill vacancies in the members elected by it."

III

Proposed by the Executive Council; recommended for adoption.

A. Amend Canon VI, Sec. I, Sub-section 1, by changing and re-arranging the list of Ex-Officio members of the Executive Council so that it shall read:

"The Bishop of the Diocese, who shall be President of the Council;

"The Bishop Coadjutor, and the Bishops Suffragan, if such there be, who shall be Vice-Presidents of the Council;

"The Elected Vice-President of the Council;

"The Executive Secretary of the Diocese;

"The Secretary of the Council;

"The Deans of the several Convocations;

"The Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall be Treasurer of the Council;

"The Assistant Treasurer of the Diocese;

"The Secretary of the Convention;

"The President of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary."

B. Amend Canon VI, Sec. I, Sub-section 5, by eliminating the words "Except as hereinafter provided for."

C. Eliminate Sub-section 6 of the same Canon and Section and renumber the following paragraphs.

D. Amend the 8th Sub-section of said Canon and Section by eliminating the words "Such officers as it may determine upon" and substitute therefor the following: "A Vice-President and such other officers as it may determine upon, from within or without its own membership."

E. Amend Canon VI, Sec. III, Sub-section 3, by changing the words "Executive Secretary" to "Executive Office."

F. Amend Canon IX, Sec. V, Sub-section 3, by changing "Secretary" to "Office."

IV

The Committee on Canons, having been instructed by the last Convention to confer with the Executive Council with a view to recommending advisable changes in the Canons having to do with Missions, presents the following proposed Amendments as the results of such conference:

A. Repeal Canon VIII.

B. Make present Canon IX Canon VIII, and amend as follows:

(a) Repeal Section 1 and substitute the following:

OF DIOCESAN MISSIONS

SEC. I—Administration

All the Missionary work of the Diocese shall be under the control and supervision of the Bishop, assisted by the Executive Council; but the work in each district, subject to such control and supervision, shall be conducted by the Deans of the several Convocations hereinafter provided for.

C. Repeal Section III, Paragraph 2, and substitute the following:

2. The Presiding Officer of each Convocation shall be a Clergyman who shall be designated as Dean, and shall be its Executive Officer, and shall be elected at a regular meeting for a term of four years. In case of a vacancy occurring between regular meetings of the Convocations a special meeting called by the Executive Committee of the Convocation for that purpose may elect a Dean to serve for the unexpired term.

D. Repeal Section III, Paragraph 3, and substitute the following:

3. Each Convocation shall make provision in its By-Laws for the annual election or appointment of an Executive Committee to assist the Dean in his work, and shall authorize said Committee to act on behalf of the Convocation in all matters requiring Convocational action coming up more than one month before a meeting of the Convocation. Each Convocation at its first stated meeting after January 1st of each year, shall elect by ballot from among its own members a Secretary and a Treasurer who shall hold office until their successors be elected.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep and account for the funds of the Convocation, paying out such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by said Convocation.

4. Each Convocation shall make an annual report to the Executive Council at the first meeting of the Council after January 1st, of each year. This report shall cover the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits with such details as the Council may require.

5. Each Convocation shall cause to be prepared and sent to the Department of Missions of the Executive Council before November 1st of each year an itemized budget of the amount of money needed for the Missionary work which it recommends should be done within its borders during the ensuing year. And each Convocation, with the approval of the Bishop and Executive Council may undertake special Missionary work and raise funds for the same.

E. Present Paragraphs 4 and 5 to be made 6 and 7.

F. Repeal Sec. IV and substitute the following:

SEC. IV—Missions and Missionaries

1. All Missionaries shall be appointed by the Bishop, and may at any time be removed by him, or be appointed to other work.

2. Each Missionary shall receive at least the minimum salary fixed by the Convention for Clergymen of his Order and years of service, which shall be paid to him monthly and, when practicable, on the last day of each month. In determining the compensation received by any Missionary account shall be taken of payments to him by the Mission, and by any Diocesan body or organization, and of payments to him from any other source for the use of his time. The Department of Missions, with the approval of the Bishop, and of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions, may for cause, fix lower salaries in special cases.

3. In all cases Pension Premiums on the salary of a Missionary shall be apportioned amongst those making payments that are liable to such premiums.

4. All Missionaries shall make such reports of their work as may be called for by the Bishop, or by the Deans or Executive Committees of their respective Convocations.

5. No appropriation of Diocesan Missionary funds shall be made to any Parish or Rector except in accordance with the provisions of Sec. V below, or unless for work outside his parish and under the direction of the Bishop and Executive Council.

G. Add new Section V, as follows:

SEC. V—Parishes Coming Under the Missionary Administration

1. Any Parish whose Rector is not in receipt of the minimum compensation required by Resolution of the Convention, and which is also unable to comply with the requirements of the Convention for receiving aid from the Sustentation Fund, shall, if it wishes to continue to receive aid from any Diocesan source, apply to the Bishop to be treated as a Mission of the Diocese so long as the above inabilities shall continue to exist.

2. Such application must be accompanied by a waiver by the Vestry of their right to elect a Rector while the Parish is being treated as a Mission, and by an agreement that during that period the Bishop may call upon their Rector, if there be one, or upon their Minister if the Bishop appoint one, to render such service within and/or without the Parish, as the Bishop may from time to time direct.

3. The application shall also be accompanied by the agreement by the Rector, if there be one, to perform such service within and/or without the Parish, as the Bishop may direct, so long as the Parish is being treated as a Mission.

4. Upon the Parish having demonstrated over a period of two years its ability to pay the minimum salary, or its ability to meet the requirements of the Convention for obtaining aid from the Clerical Salaries and Pensions Fund, full Parish status shall be regained, and if the Minister-in-Charge is the one who was Rector when the parish became a Mission he shall resume his tenure as Rector.

5. Nothing in this Canon shall be construed so as to in any way affect the management of a Parish under its Charter or Articles of Association otherwise than is herein provided, or the membership of the Parish in the Convention or its right to representation and vote therein, or as relieving it from Diocesan Assessments.

New Standing Resolution

In case more than $500 is required from the Clerical Salaries and Pension Fund to enable a Parish to pay its Rector the minimum salary, the Commission shall not make any appropriation until the Rector and Vestry have filed with the Bishop their agreement that the Bishop may call upon the Rector to devote a portion of his time to Missionary work outside of the Parish under the direction of the Bishop.

CANON IX

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship

SEC. I. No new Congregation or Church School shall be gathered, or new Church, Chapel or Mission established, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, Church School or Mission be changed without the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese.

SEC. II. When it is desired to gather a new Congregation or Church School, or to establish a new Church, Chapel or Mission, or to change the site of any existing Church, Chapel, Mission or Church School, a petition shall be presented to the Bishop setting forth the site proposed for the new place of worship or Church School, as the case may be. If the proposed undertaking be a Diocesan Missionary enterprise the petition shall be presented by the Dean and Executive Committee of the Convocation within which it is to be situated. If it be other than a Diocesan Missionary enterprise the petition shall be signed by the organization or persons chiefly interested in promoting it. Provided, that if the application be to change the site of any existing Church, Chapel or Mission, the petition shall aver that notice of the proposed change of site has been given by the Rector or Minister-in-Charge to the Congregation at one public service on each of the three Sundays immediately preceding the presentation of said petition.

SEC. III. As soon as may be after the receipt of said petition, the Bishop shall cause a copy of the same to be sent to the Rectors and Secretaries of the Vestries of the three Parishes whose Places of Worship are nearest the site of the proposed new Place of Worship or Church School, together with an invitation to said Rectors and Vestries to meet with him and the Standing Committee at a time named by the Bishop, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the sending of the invitation, for a conference as to the wisdom of the proposed enterprise at that particular site.

CANON XI

Of the Establishment and Organization of Missions

A. Change Section I, 1, to read as follows:

SEC. I—The Application

1. The residents of any community desiring the establishment of a Mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall first make application for to the Dean and Executive Committee of the Convocation in which they reside to present to the Bishop the petition called for in the Canon on the Establishment of New Places of Worship. Having obtained approval of the site of the proposed Mission they shall make application to the Bishop, in the form herein below provided, for the establishment of a Mission. This application, if approved by the Dean and Executive Committee of the Convocation, shall be forwarded by them to the Department of Missions of the Executive Council, and if approved by the Council, shall be presented to the Bishop for action thereon.

B. Change the words that follow Application in Section II to read as follows:

This application should be signed by the adults who propose to be members of the Mission, and be accompanied by a report of the Executive Committee of the Convocation, giving such information upon the project as they may be able to obtain, together with their judgment thereon.

C. Repeal present Section III. Make present Section IV, Section III. Add new sub-section to Section III, as follows:

8. The Officers of the Mission shall make such reports as the Dean and Executive Committee of the Convocation may call for.

D. Add new Section, as follows:

SEC. IV—Finances

1. No Minister-in-Charge, or any other person or persons connected with a Mission shall sign any promissory notes, or contracts, or in any other way obligate the Mission for a total of over $500 without the consent of the Executive Council.

2. No Mission authorities shall take steps to incorporate the organization without the Consent of the Bishop and Executive Council.

IV

The Committee on Canons has examined the Amendment proposed by L. B. Runk, Esq., and recommends its adoption.

Amend Canon IV, Sec. II, by adding a new sub-section, as follows:

3. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Canons to suggest to the Convention, from time to time, such changes in, or additions to the Constitution, Canons, Rules of Order or Standing Resolutions as may seem to the Committee to be wise.

V

The Committee on Canons offers the following resolutions:

1. That the Canons be printed under the supervision of the Committee on Canons, and that the Committee be authorized to do such renumbering and such regrouping as may be proper, and to make such corrections as may be necessary to ensure the canons as printed representing the will of the Convention.

2. That the Committee be authorized to prepare for printing separately, and for circulation among the Missions, a short summary of the Canonical provisions having to do with the responsibilities and duties of Missionaries and Mission officers.

APPENDED TO THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

Our Present Standing Rules of Order provide that no permanent alterations may be made in them unless twenty-four hours' notice of the same has been given. As Conventions nowadays seldom sit more than one day, the undersigned hereby gives notice that he will move the following changes in the Rules:

1. Repeal Rule 6, which reads, "No resolution affecting salaries under the control of the Convention shall be finally adopted on the day it is introduced."

2. Add a new Rule. "The motion to Lay Upon the Table shall not be in order."

3. Add a new Rule. "Reports of Committees and Commissions shall be received without motion to receive them, and it shall be understood that all special committees are discharged upon making their reports, unless the Convention recommits matters to them for their future consideration, or unless they report their work unfinished."

4. Amend present Rule 8 so that it shall read: "These Rules of Order may be suspended or permanently changed by a two-thirds vote, and not otherwise."

F. C. HARTSHORNE.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Committee on the Celebration of the 150th Diocesan Anniversary

We have the honor to report that the instructions given to us by the unanimous action of the Convention of 1933 have been carried out to the best of our ability.

In common with other Diocesan enterprises, we have mourned the loss of Mr. Edward Horne Bonsall.

We cannot but share with you all, our gratification over the quite general and genuinely hearty response to our various projects.

The memory of the Laymen's Pilgrimage to Christ Church on April 30th and the notable addresses delivered there by Bishop Perry, the Honorable George Wharton Pepper, the Honorable Roland S. Morris, and President Thomas S. Gates to an overflowing congregation of representative citizens will linger long with those present; and we hope to share them with many to whom they will prove an enrichment of thought and life. We are particularly indebted to the learned brethren who have done violence to Philadelphia's misconceived taciturnity toward its truly great personalities and accomplishments, and have collaborated in compiling the articles put out and distributed by those two venerable and active organizations, the Bishop White Prayer Book Society and the Episcopal Tract Society. (Copies of these brochures can be secured upon application at the Church House.)

There has been immediate and stimulating coöperation on the part of large numbers of men and women on the list of committees. And there has been developed a happy and promiseful consciousness of historic fraternity between the Dioceses of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania; for all of whom Bishop White was spiritual father and guide while they were finding their organic feet.

Eyes are riveted on the October opportunities incident to the great triennial General Convention assembling in Atlantic City. We remind you that the critical movement we are set to commemorate was in reality an unprecedented campaign for diocesan and national self-realization stretching over five cumulative years. 1783 and 4 brought forth but the beginnings of that pioneer movement. With masterly patience, unforgettable advances marked the year 1785, when the first collective assembly from the various States met in this city; and 1787 is forever signalized by the consecration at Lambeth of William White; and the culmination was attained in 1789 when Seabury and White united here with the clerical and lay deputies from New England and the South, as well as from the Delaware River States, in the epochal First General Convention of our National Church. If we rightly apprehend the mind and spirit of our fellowship, and the magnitude of the objectives beckoning us, we are launched upon a five-year plan of corporate education and inspiration, focusing on the pivotal dates of 1785, 1787 and 1789.

We cannot too heartily express appreciation of the coöperation of the Committee of which Mr. Reynolds D. Brown was Chairman, and the Committee of the Vestry of Christ Church, under the chairmanship of Mr. William White, Jr., in issuing invitations and providing befitting accommodations for those who took part in the Laymen's Pilgrimage.

A committee of six, whose officers are Mr. Samuel F. Houston and Mr. William P. Barba, is undertaking to secure the required funds for financing the programs, both in May and in October next. It would facilitate their labors if volunteer gifts should be forwarded to them at once.

Perhaps the Committees which will find themselves most busily engaged in carrying out the various features of our proposed part in connection with the assembling of the General Convention in October are those whose Chairmen are respectively, the Reverend Dr. Gilbert E. Pember and the Reverend Dr. Charles E. Tuke. The one has to do with the welcoming of deputations from Atlantic City to exercises here, in collaboration with the Committees of the Diocese of New Jersey. The plan is to have several hundred of the deputies honor us with their presence on Saturday, October 20th, for such attentions as the Committee may develop; and on Sunday, the 21st, a considerable number will be available for preaching engagements in the city; the Reverend Mr. Morris has already received from the New Jersey managers a list of such assignable guests of the Diocese. The other Committee is concentrating on the Bishop's plan for transporting 20,000 Churchmen to Atlantic City to attend the Opening Service of the General Convention on Wednesday, October 10th.

Furthermore, we desire to make record of our thanks to the Pageant Committee and the Publicity Committee. Miss Mary Sims and her associates have been favored by the Reverend Osgood with the text for an artistic Pageant, which will be held in reserve for one of the subsequent celebrations. The Committee is also preparing briefer texts for simpler plays for use in Parish Houses.

The indefatigable Chairman of the Publicity Committee, Mr. Samuel H. Warnock, has rendered most valuable assistance in featuring our story in The Church News and the Church papers and the daily press.

Chiefest of all, it goes without saying, has been the untiring encouragement of our Bishop, who so happily perpetuates Pennsylvania's traditional type of forthright response to human need and the purpose of God.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS C. WASHBURN — SAMUEL F. HOUSTON
DAVID M. STEELE — PARKER WILLIAMS
GEORGE H. TOOP — GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER
